

By involving yourself in a sexual relationship with a defendant you charged has potentially damaged the murder case against her and her co-defendants. This has also placed increased scrutiny on your past and current cases. Your actions have tarnished your reputation and your ability to be relied upon in active and upcoming cases. This places you in violation of Memphis Police Department DR 304 Compromising Criminal Cases which states:

DR 304 Compromising Criminal Cases

A member shall not make any promises or arrangements with prisoners or between a suspect and his victim intended to permit the offender to escape the full penalty provided by law, or interfere with the courts, or for personal gain or benefit, use their official position to make any arrangements for any suspect or prisoner to escape prosecution.

In your statement to ISB investigators you stated you did not buy or provide marijuana to the defendant. You also stated you did not refer her to anyone to purchase marijuana. In text messages you sent to the defendant you give the name and address of a person for the defendant to meet and purchase marijuana. You tell the defendant you will get her some "green". You were also deceitful in telling investigators the defendant would be used as a witness in the murder case. You allowed the defendant to travel with you and another investigator on a City of Memphis sponsored out of state trip. You advised the defendant slept in your hotel room but in a separate bed. The defendant refuted that statement and advised there was only one bed and you shared it with her. This places you in violation of Memphis Police Department DR 108 Truthfulness, which states:

DR 108 Truthfulness

A member shall not give any information, either oral or written, in connection with any assignment or investigation that is either knowingly incorrect, false, or deceitful.

The defendant informed you she had a warrant in Haywood County. In text messages you asked for her date of birth, social security number and driver's license number. You queried the defendant on December 12, 2018, at 11:08 pm, 11:09 pm, 11:20 pm and 11:21 pm. You informed the defendant she only had a suspended driver's license. Your queries did not have anything to do with the murder investigation but was relative to your personal relationship. In your statement to investigators you stated your query was personal. This places you in violation of Memphis Police Department DR 608 Accessing Reports & Records with No Legitimate Purpose, which states:

DR 608 Accessing Reports & Records with No Legitimate Purpose

A member shall not access official offense reports, departmental records or information concerning police matters without a legitimate law enforcement purpose.

The defendant traveled with you on a work related trip to Montgomery, Alabama in a vehicle issued to you by the City of Memphis. You did not receive authorization for the defendant to travel in the vehicle. This places you in violation of Memphis Police Department DR 903 Unauthorized Passengers, which states in part:

DR 903 Unauthorized Passengers

A member shall not allow unauthorized passengers to ride in any vehicle of this Department, unless specifically authorized by competent authority and in compliance with Department orders and directives.

While on the trip you were issued a traffic citation for Speeding. Upon returning to Memphis you did not inform your supervisor in a written memo that you were issued the citation. This places you in violation of Memphis Police Department DR 125 Member Under Investigation which states in part:

DR 125 Member Under Investigation

A member shall immediately submit a written memo to their supervisor/ commanding officer that they have been issued a misdemeanor citation or citation for any misdemeanor offense (including traffic citations while off-duty), arrested for any misdemeanor/felony offense or is being sued in a court of law.

You were involved in a sexual relationship with a defendant who had been arrested ten (10) times before you charged her with Accessory after the Fact to wit: First Degree Murder. The defendant's charges range from Possession of a Controlled Substance, Driving Offenses, Shoplifting, and Drug Paraphernalia to Underage Drinking. You stated to investigators you were aware of her criminal history and gang affiliation. You stated police in Haywood county were aware of her criminal history. This places you in violation of Memphis Police Department DR 110 Consorting With Persons of Bad or Criminal Reputation, which states:

A member of this department shall not knowingly socialize or have a business relationship with another person, who has been imprisoned or convicted of a felony, or who are known criminals, except in the performance of their official police duties.

I. Allegation

You were involved in a sexual relationship with a defendant whom you charged in a murder case.

Your involvement has potentially jeopardized the on-going legal proceedings against the defendant and co-defendants. Your current and upcoming cases are tarnished.

You stated you did not provide the defendant with marijuana. You stated you did not refer the defendant to anyone to purchase marijuana. Your text message exchanges contradict your statements. You stated the defendant was charged in this case but would be used as a witness instead. The defendant's role in this case has not changed.

You queried the defendant on December 12, 2018, without a legitimate law enforcement purpose admitting in your statement that is for personal use.

You took a defendant on a work related trip to Montgomery, Alabama, in a city issued vehicle. You did not receive permission for the defendant to travel in the vehicle or spend the night with you in a hotel paid for by the City of Memphis.

You were issued a traffic citation for Speeding while on the trip. You failed to adhere to policy and did not inform your supervisor by memo.

You were involved in a relationship with a defendant that has been arrested a total of eleven (11) times. The defendant is a known gang member. You were aware of her criminal history and gang affiliation.

Deputy Chief Samuel Hines, Jr. read the allegations of the complaint that said in part: On March 1, 2018 you were the lead investigator of a murder case and began a sexual relationship with a defendant you charged in this case you provided the defendant with marijuana and allow her to take photos inside your residence with several of your firearms. This conduct is unbecoming of a law enforcement officer and places you in violations Memphis Police Department DR-104 Personal Conduct which states: The conduct of each member, both on and off-duty, is expected to be such that it will not reflect adversely on other members, the Department, the City of Memphis, or the law enforcement profession. This regulation applies to both the professional and private conduct of all members. It includes not only all unlawful acts by members but also acts which, although not unlawful in themselves, would violate either the Law Enforcement or Civilian Code of Ethics, and would degrade or bring disrespect upon the member or the Department.

Lt. Eric Kelly was offered an opportunity to comment on the allegations. Lt. Kelly began by apologizing to Chief Hines, Colonel Oakley and Lt. Col. Jackson for this entire situation. He explained, it was not on their watch that this happened. It occurred over a year ago before I even got promoted. I know that this is at a minimum a total embarrassment on a certain level for this to be dropped in you guys lap. I'm not here to "bs" or snowball, there's stuff that occurred that I have to take full responsibility for that I will do. But, I do have a problem with the categorization of certain things that in regards to other Statement of Charges that are in there. Addressing the first one Personal Conduct, the way they have it written here I would say that on a certain level that I would acknowledge that it was Personal Conduct. But again, I take issue with how it was categorized. It reads as if I was in a sexual relationship with this woman... the way it was presented to me from the gentlemen from ISB was that I had forced a statement out of a person in exchange for sexual favors. That's how it was presented to me. That is inaccurate and not true. They eventually... again I admitted to them that there was some sexual contact between me and her. But it was not as if I entered into this situation to just have sex with a girl. The genesis of my involvement with even becoming personally involved with her was in regards to the homicide case that... she was technically a witness case, who I tried to make multiple efforts to contact her to get her to come in to speak with me to confirm some stuff involved in the case. She had no direct involvement with the homicide at all. And the prosecutor on the case at the time who has since quit and the prosecutor who has it now is Jose Leon and... (Lt. Kelly unable to recall the name of the other prosecutor) there was a warrant that was issued for her and it was what we refer to as a "twist of arm"... it was a warrant that I issued by gleaming over the facts. I am very good at writing stuff to get stuff accomplished. It was written up, and if you read the warrant it does not directly say that she did anything it just alludes to and it passed the mustard with the judicial commission and it was issued. She's arrested and brought to the office and there's an interview. As I do with anybody that I talk to even with suspects I tell them, I give a card and I tell them look... if they are garbage completely, if they were heinous, or if what they did is totally jacked up, then there's no hope for them. I on many occasions have offered my business card to people and tell them if you need some help with stuff, holler at me and I will see what I can do to help you get to where you trying to get to, which is what happened in this particular situation. That evolved into contact with her, interpersonal contact with her. And actually the first time I came into contact with her was down in court. I had court and something and she had court and actually Jose Leon met up with her and spoke with her down there in court. And that's where she asked me for my number and called again because she was trying to get herself together. This information about her taking photos inside my residence with my firearms, I had no clue. But I do have several firearms, they showed me pictures but I was not aware of and didn't know that she had taken pictures with the firearms. So again, they are listing that up under the Personal Conduct thing, which I guess it's all about interpretation in regards to it. But I did not allow her to do it. I wasn't like I said hey, go in there and do this that and another. If you refer to the picture, it's not like I took the picture, it's a picture that she took of herself.

Chief Hines: Were those photos taken inside of your apartment?

Lt. Kelly: Yes sir.

Chief Hines: With firearms that belong to you?

Lt. Kelly: Yes sir.

Chief Hines: Did you have a sexual relationship with this defendant and the defendant's name is Stafford?

Lt. Kelly: Yes sir, that's her name.

Chief Hines: What's her first name?

Lt. Kelly: Bridgett

Chief Hines: Bridgett Stafford, which was the person mentioned in this case?

Lt. Kelly: Correct

Chief Hines: Did you have a sexual relationship with her while this homicide case was going on?

Lt. Kelly: There was sexual contact between me and her, yes sir.

Chief Hines: I will probably come back to this question again. Did this suspect or defendant travel out of town with you during the investigation of this homicide?

Lt. Kelly: She did travel out of town with me, yes sir. It wasn't in relationship to that particular case, it was in relationship to another case; but she did travel in the city vehicle with me.

Chief Hines: So how did you assist with helping her?

Lt. Kelly: When she saw me in court and told me she wanted to try to get together she told me and explained to me what her living and family situation was and I told her that I would assist. The first thing that I did was when after we talked on the phone a couple of times, I had her to meet me back down at 201 Poplar. Because she explained that she had a history years ago of taking pills and that she didn't anymore but that she still regularly smoked weed. So I said well look, what you need to do is this, you need to be able to show and tell people what you trying to do, what you need to do to rehabilitate yourself. So I took her down and had her to meet me at 201 Poplar. I know Judge Dwyer, but not a personal level but I know him very well from years ago, all the drug busts I used to make. Me and him developed a really nice relationship what have you. I knew that he ran this drug court and said this is what we are going to do. We are going to go down there and I'm going to introduce you to Judge Dwyer in the drug court and we're going to see what programs they have to offer that you can enter into or go from to so you can be able to say I did this, I completed this. She agreed we went down there I introduced her to Judge Dwyer, we spoke. Judge Dwyer offered some suggestions and some things that she could do. Because she did not have an active case in his court room, he could not directly speak on behalf. Normally how I think it works over there, you get paperwork, you complete this everything is good. But what he did he had his secretary to call around to a couple of places and got the information from some facilities and programs and provided that to me and to her. For her to contact these people on her own and for her to do that. Her living situation was that she was back and forth between her mother's home who she said she did not regularly get along with and that the home she shared with another a girl that was basically from right around the corner and that she was in the middle of and was trying to keep that up with or what have you. She said there were no job opportunities up there. So me and her started discussing so we'll start trying to find you a job. And so I would say you need to register to go back to school. From what she told me she had started the process to enroll back into school and I sat and directed her to places to try and get jobs so that she would start getting an income that would help her to be able to provide a place. Through the conversations that I had with her, it became clear that, she's from Tipton County that were no jobs in Tipton County that were to be had that she could get back and forth to because she did not have a working vehicle. She had one that she was trying to work on.

Chief Hines: The case that was in question that's being investigated, the homicide occurred the last of July 2017?

Lt. Kelly: Yes sir, I believe I think that's about right.

Chief Hines: Have that case gone to court and been prosecuted? Or is that still a pending case?

Lt. Kelly: Yes sir, it's still a pending case.

Chief Hines: When did you start having a relationship with Ms. Stafford?

If I can break it down into 2 categories. I didn't come into physical contact with her until Chief Hines: When was she brought in as a witness?

Lt. Kelly: She was brought in and I took a statement from her April 27, 2018.

Chief Hines: April 27, 2018.

Lt. Kelly: Yes sir. It was several weeks after that when I came back in contact with her down there at 201 Poplar.

Chief Hines: Was there any personal relationships established at that point?

Lt. Kelly: Aside from me and her talking about this is what you need to do to try to get yourself on a better footing. She has 3 children so that was the extent of the conversation.

Chief Hines: What was the next contact?

Lt. Kelly: The next contact with her? I would say a week. I spoke to her on the phone several times. But as far as physically actually...

Chief Hines: When you spoke her was she in jail or was she free?

Lt. Kelly: She was out of jail.

Chief: Ok.

Lt. Kelly: She was out of jail when I spoke to her, we spoke on the phone, I'd say a day or 2 later.

Chief Hines: Ok so let's go from April 27, 2018 (first contact), when was a relationship or a sexual relationship established?

Lt. Kelly: The first time that was some sexual contact between me and her was when the trip to Montgomery occurred.

Chief Hines: I have the dates on here, but do you recall? At least a month?

Lt. Kelly: August? July, end of July, August somewhere around there.

Chief Hines: Of '17? Correction, of '18?

Lt. Kelly: Yes sir. When I first laid eyes on her was April 27, so yes that's about right.

Chief Hines: Ok, so about August or September of '18, she road to Montgomery, Alabama with you?

Lt. Kelly: Yes sir. The way that she ended up, the way that came about, again she was back and forth, she had a vehicle that she was trying to get fixed and dealing with her mother and her living situation. By that point she was being told that she was getting ready to be evicted out of where she was living with this other person and I had actually given her money to get her car fixed and I had given her money for small things like she said she needed to eat, she needed to get something for her kids or whatever and I provided or sent her money for that through a web based app.

Chief Hines: What was the purpose of taking her to Alabama then?

Lt. Kelly: The genesis again what was behind that was, me and Sgt. Green were preparing to go, she contacted me and said that she had been evicted, she had nowhere to go, she could not go to her mother's because they had a falling out. And I took sympathy on her, I had invested some time with her and wanted her to have a level of comfort and I truly did not want to see the girl out on the streets. And so I told her look, I've got to go do this, I said come ride with me and when we come back we'll get her living situation figured out. So that's how she ended up on the trip with me.

Chief Hines: Then somewhere along this trip a sexual relationship established, right?

Lt. Kelly: Yes, sir there was some sexual contact. Yes sir.

Chief Hines: So what you're saying DR-104 Personal Conduct... was Personal Conduct violated?

Lt. Kelly: There was a violation of Personal Conduct, yes sir. But again not to the imp degree that it is explained in these documents right here.

Chief Hines: Since your relationship with the defendant you charged in a case?

Lt. Kelly: That did occur sir.

Chief Hines: Photos inside your residence with several firearms?

Lt. Kelly: That was done and yes sir that did occur. But that again was done unbeknownst to me.

Chief Hines: A trip out of town in a city vehicle with this defendant inside?

Lt. Kelly: That's correct, yes sir.

DR-304 Compromising a criminal case

Chief Hines: By involving yourself in a sexual relationship with the defendant your charge has potentially a murder case against her and her codefendants. This has also placed increased scrutiny on your past and current cases. Your actions have tarnished your reputation and your ability to be relied upon in active and upcoming cases. This places you in violation of Memphis Police Department DR-304 Compromising Criminal Cases states: A member shall not make any promises or arrangements with prisoners or between a suspect and his victim intended to permit the offender to escape the full penalty provided by law, or interfere with the courts, or for personal gain or benefit, use their official position to make any arrangements for any suspect or prisoner to escape prosecution.

Chief Hines: Do you feel that this case has been compromised due to your actions?

Lt. Kelly: I truly don't. The reason why I don't sir is because again the only reason a warrant was issued is because it was done to get her to come in and give a statement. The accessory after the fact charge is a felony; but it was something that is a common practice that occurs and goes on between the homicide bureau and the prosecutor's office to get people to come in. You could speak with Jose Leon, you could speak with Reggie Henderson, and Karen Cook is the other prosecutor in regards to it and they will tell you that often time they are people that get that charge and it is an arm twisting tactic because it is so difficult to get people to come in on cases, so if we can finagle and getting that charge placed then what it does it basically is used through the prosecutor's office to force people to testify, which is what went on in this particular case. I would often use this as to offer an explanation as to why she was even arrested in relationship to that particular charge. I'd ask you to speak with Karen Cook, Jose Leon or any one of those prosecutor's and ask them, in homicide cases do these people even generally get prosecuted in regards to ... because what they do is they will hold the accessory charge over them and say you guys come to court and as long as you testify truthfully in regards to whatever their statement was then we dismiss those charges. That is something that is through and in conjunction all the time, it's a sad fact and if you work in Investigations and especially in that homicide bureau, you call down there and ask Tony Mullins or anybody who has been there any extended period of time and who has truly worked a case...

Chief Hines: So that's why she was arrested?

Lt. Kelly: Yes sir.

Chief Hines: So let's talk about the compromising of the case of the codefendants, this person was used as a witness against the codefendants and you end up having a sexual relationship with this person who was supposed to testify against the codefendants.... do not feel that this would not compromise the case?

Lt. Kelly: Yes sir, I would tell you on the surface it would.

Chief Hines: Or potentially damage this case against those codefendants?

Lt. Kelly: I would say that again reading it like that would...when that particular case unfolded that girl was truly a witness. The sexual relationship that occurred, it's not a good look for me...

Chief Hines: As the primary investigator of the homicide case against the codefendants

Lt. Kelly: Yes sir

Chief Hines: Yes or no. Do you feel that your actions here potentially compromised a criminal case?

Lt. Kelly: Yes sir, there can be perceived a potential compromise, yes sir.

Chief Hines: I wasn't clear on this Michael S. McGee in this codefendant piece. Can you elaborate on him a little bit?

Lt. Kelly: He was another person that was truly a witness, did not participate actively in the homicide, an accessory warrant was issued.

Chief Hines: I have an Eric Curry (primary suspect)?

Lt. Kelly: Eric Curry and Nicholas W. are codefendants in the homicide.

Going back to the Personal Conduct

Chief Hines: Did Ms. Stafford also accompany you on a trip to Dallas, Texas?

Lt. Kelly: Negative

DR-108 Truthfulness

In your statement to ISB you stated you did not buy or provide marijuana to the defendant. You also stated you did not refer her to anyone to purchase marijuana. In text messages you sent to defendant, you give the name and address of a person for the defendant to meet and purchase marijuana (as in the IAB statement). You tell the defendant you will get her some green. You were also deceitful in telling the investigators the defendant would be used as a witness in a murder case. You allowed the defendant and another investigator to travel with you on a City of Memphis sponsored out of town trip. You advised that the defendant slept in your hotel room but in separate beds. The defendant refuted that statement and advised that it was only one bed and you shared with her. This places you in violation of Memphis Police Department DR- 108 Truthfulness which reads: A member shall not give any information, either oral or written, in connection with any assignment or investigation that is either knowingly incorrect, false, or deceitful.

Chief Hines: You told them (ISB) that the individual went to Montgomery, Alabama with you and it was 2 beds in the bedroom. So, that's what you told them.

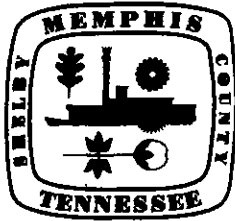

Chief Hines: Is that true or false?

Lt. Kelly: I did not lie to them. That's why I'm trying to figure out how that can be Truthfulness. I had told them in the statement.

This Hearing will be continued until November 8, 2019 at 1:00PM.

Lt. Eric Kelly 4679, abruptly retired on November 8, 2019, prior to the continuation of his Hearing dated for November 8, 2019 at 1:00PM. This Hearing will now be held in ABEYANCE.

No further actions will be taken at this time.

HEARING SUMMARY Form Continuation
0845-18

DR 127 Reporting Improper Conduct is SUSTAINED for the following reasons. Sgt. Sheila Green, although not the driver of the City Of Memphis vehicle, which was stopped lawfully for a traffic violation, but Sgt. Green was a passenger in the vehicle on official business for the City Of Memphis Police department. DR 127 Reporting Improper Conduct specifically states: "A member shall immediately report to the Department any violation of Policies and Regulations or any other improper conduct which is contrary to the policy, order, or directives of the Department."

When Sgt. Eric Kelly was stopped by a Law Enforcement in Alabama for speeding and given a citation, this information should have been immediately reported to Sgt. Kelly and Sgt. Green Supervisors. At the very least a memo should have been written by both Sgt. Kelly and Sgt. Green immediately notifying their supervisors of the encounter.

This traffic violation was never reported to a supervisor until a case was opened against Sgt. Kelly in another matter. Sgt green appeared to bear no responsibility in Sgt. Kelly's driving infraction, however Sgt. Green did have a responsibility to report the negative encounter Sgt. Kelly had with another law enforcement agency while on duty in her presence.

III) Allegation:

It is alleged that Lieutenant Eric Kelly, when he was a Homicide Sergeant, was engaged in an inappropriate relationship with a female co-defendant who he formally charged with Accessory After the Fact: to wit: 1st Degree Murder.

IV) Background:

On March 1, 2018, Sgt. Eric Kelly issued a warrant for the arrest of Bridgett Stafford (29 yoa), for Accessory After the Fact: to wit: 1st Degree Murder. On December 13, 2018, during a proffer session with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Bridgett Stafford's boyfriend, Jeffrey Meadows, advised Sgt. Kelly had leveraged the criminal charge against Stafford to initiate a sexual relationship with her.

On May 2, 2019, an administrative investigation was opened to determine if Lt. Kelly violated any policies or procedures of the Memphis Police Department relative to his relationship with Bridgett Stafford.

V) CAD #:

N/A

VI) Evidentiary Findings:

A) Statements:

Civilian Witness Bridgett Stafford, stated she was arrested for Accessory to First Degree Murder around May or June of 2018. She was interrogated by Sgt. Kelly. When Sgt. Kelly walked into the room the first thing he said was, "I will fuck the shit out of you." During the interrogation Sgt. Kelly asked her if she was a stripper and did she sell pussy. Sgt. Kelly gave her his business card and told her to call him.

Stafford called Sgt. Kelly after her court appearance and they began a relationship which involved sexual intercourse. Sgt. Kelly never made any promises or threats dealing with her criminal charges. The relationship evolved to the point where Stafford had the codes to get into Sgt. Kelly's apartment and she would stay overnight four to five days a week. She was left alone in his apartment and had access to his guns. She photographed herself with the guns with Kelly's knowledge.

Stafford went with Sgt. Kelly and another female detective on a work related trip to Alabama. Stafford and Kelly picked the detective up at the detective's house. Stafford was introduced to the detective's wife and they smoked weed together before the trip. The officers did not smoke marijuana. They were stopped by a trooper in Alabama for speeding. She was nervous because she had marijuana on her that Kelly provided.

Kelly provided her with over $2000 during the course of their relationship. She got a job as a stripper at the Gold Club and he bought her outfits and other items she needed. She went with him to buy marijuana from a male black several times. He also would provide marijuana to her when she spent the night at his residence. She stated he would put the marijuana in a McDonald's bag. Stafford is a member of the Gangster Disciples gang.

Citizen Witness Mark Jones stated to ISB investigators he and Eric Kelly are childhood friends. They grew up together in Orange Mound. He has not talked to Kelly since his mother died several months ago.

Witness Officer Sgt. Fausto Frias stated he participated in the interrogation of Bridgett Stafford. He did not hear Lt. Kelly say anything inappropriate to Ms. Kelly before, during or after the interview. He has not seen Ms. Stafford at Lt. Kelly's residence.

Witness Officer Sgt. Sheila Green confirmed she went on a work related trip to Montgomery, Alabama with Lt. Kelly on August 28th. She stated a female civilian was in the vehicle when Lt. Kelly picked her up from her house. She did not know the race of the female. The only physical characteristics she remembered were her being light skinned and shorter than her.

She did not have any interactions with the female. Sgt. Green and Lt. Kelly stayed in separate rooms at the Holiday Inn. Lt. Kelly drove the vehicle the entire trip. During the trip they were involved in a traffic stop. She did not know whether he was issued a citation or a warning.

In her follow-up interview Witness Officer Sgt. Sheila Green stated a civilian female went on a trip with Lt. Kelly and her to Montgomery, Alabama. She could not remember her name but she was with Lt. Kelly and not her. She did not receive permission to allow a civilian to go on the trip and no one went with her. Lt. Kelly introduced the female but Sgt. Green could not remember her name. Sgt. Green and Lt. Kelly had separate rooms at the Holiday Inn. Sgt. Green was unsure if the female stayed in Lt. Kelly's room.

Sgt. Green got reimbursed for meals she purchased. Lt. Kelly and her paid for their meals separately. Her receipt reflected two guests purchased meals but she explained she ordered two entrees. Lt. Kelly was stopped for speeding during the trip and was issued either a courtesy or speeding citation. Sgt. Green was presented a Photo Line-up of six (6) Caucasian females. She identified Photo #2 as the female that went on the trip to Montgomery, Alabama with Lt. Kelly. (Photo #2 Bridgett Stafford)

Principal Officer Lt. Eric Kelly stated he was the case investigator in the murder investigation of victim, Robert Glidden. He issued an Accessory After the Fact: to wit 1st Degree Murder warrant on Bridgett Stafford related to the murder investigation. Stafford was arrested on the warrant and he questioned her along with Sgt. Frias. During the interview he talked to Stafford about the case and her life choices but he did not say anything inappropriate. Stafford was a high ranking "GD" and Kelly gave her his card with his work phone number () and told her to call him if she wanted help to change her life.

A friendship was developed between them and he gave her his personal phone number . He introduced her to several associates that could help her obtain employment. Stafford stayed overnight at Kelly's residence multiple times. Kelly acknowledged pictures of Stafford in his apartment posing with his firearms and pictures of them together. Their relationship involved oral sex and not intercourse.

Stafford decided she wanted to become a dancer to make money. Kelly supported her decision but did not force her. Kelly bought her outfits and accessories for her job at the Gold Club as a stripper. In totality he gave Stafford thousands of dollars in person or by Cash App throughout their relationship. Kelly did not provide Stafford with marijuana nor did he refer her to anyone to buy marijuana.

Stafford went with Kelly and Sgt. Green on a work related trip to Montgomery, Alabama. Kelly and Stafford shared a hotel room with two beds. He did not spend any stipend money on Stafford. On the way back to Memphis he was stopped in Alabama on Interstate 72 or 78 by a State Trooper for Speeding. He took a driving class in Memphis so the ticket could be reduced from $327. He did not inform his Supervisors that a civilian went on the trip. He also did not formally inform his Supervisors that he got a ticket.

VIII) Analysis:

➤ Lt. Eric Kelly

The primary issue related to this investigation centers upon the actions of Lt. Eric Kelly and whether his actions transcend the standards of the Memphis Police Department. These standards are established in the Memphis Police Department's DR-104 Personal Conduct, which states:

DR 104 Personal Conduct

The conduct of each member, both on and off-duty, is expected to be such that it will not reflect adversely on other members, the Department, the City of Memphis, or the law enforcement profession. This regulation applies to both the professional and private conduct of all members. It includes not only all unlawful acts by members but also acts which, although not unlawful in themselves, would violate either the Law Enforcement or Civilian Code of Ethics, and would degrade or bring disrespect upon the member or the Department.

Law Enforcement Code of Ethics states in part:

I recognize the badge of my office as a symbol of public faith, and accept it as a public trust to be held so long as I am true to the ethics of the police service. I will constantly strive to achieve these objectives and ideals, dedicating myself before God to my chosen profession ... law enforcement."

The public demands that the integrity of its law enforcement officers be above reproach, and the dishonesty of a single officer may impair public confidence and cast suspicion and disrespect upon the entire Department. Succumbing to even minor temptation can be the genesis, which will ultimately destroy an individual's effectiveness and contribute to the corruption of countless others. A member must scrupulously avoid any conduct, which might compromise the integrity of themselves, their fellow members or the Department.

It is essential that public confidence be maintained in the ability of the Department to investigate and properly dispose of complaints against its members. Additionally, the Department has the responsibility to seek out and discipline those whose conduct discredits the Department or impairs its effective operation. The rights of the member, as well as those of the public, must be conducted fairly, impartially and efficiently, with the truth as its primary objective."

The administrative investigation revealed Probationary Lt. Kelly entered into a sexual relationship with a female co-defendant, Bridgett Stafford, which lasted approximately eight (8) to nine (9) months. The homicide investigation began in July 2017, where Stafford was developed and later arrested on April 26, 2018. Lt. Kelly was the lead investigator who conducted her interrogation. According to Stafford, at a court appearance, Kelly saved his personal cell number in her phone as, "Dirty Red Nice Ass 2". This investigation did not show Kelly made any promises or threats concerning her criminal case; however Kelly's involvement in their relationship became unethical in nature.

A forensic examination of Stafford's cell phone conducted by the FBI revealed text messages from Kelly arranging for Stafford to get marijuana from a third party, "Call my guy mark ...I'm gone tell him ur call...and u have to stop sharing ur weed mama..what I get for u...I get so YOU can enjoy it". In another text message exchange he tells Stafford, "I will get you some green". Photo log page 3, 4

In his statement to ISB investigators Kelly acknowledged Stafford being a "high ranking GD" (Gangster Disciples) gang member and having an extensive criminal history.

According to both Kelly and Stafford she would stay overnight at Kelly's residence. The forensic examination of her phone also showed several different photographs of Stafford and Kelly together, once at a gun range and another one as a selfie where Kelly is driving and Stafford is on the passenger side seated in a vehicle.

Some text messages were explicit in nature, Kelly to Stafford, "Get nasty for me mama...let me see it all...I want to jack off so damn bad right now" Photo log page 8

Kelly also sent Stafford a nude photo of his genitalia. Photo log page 10.

Kelly provided Stafford with over two thousand dollars during the course of their relationship. He acknowledged in his statement to ISB the money was for clothing, accessories for her job as a stripper at The Gold Club, to buy marijuana, pay utilities and gifts.

The homicide detective's role is being the voice of a murder victim. Kelly's official sole purpose and focus should have been ensuring that justice would prevail. Instead he began an unethical relationship with the suspect he arrested in the investigation. His behavior has potentially jeopardized the on-going legal proceedings against the suspect and her co-defendants. The actions of Kelly have also alarmed the District Attorney's office. His current and upcoming cases are now stained with the stench of corruption. This is a direct violation of Memphis Police Department's DR 304 Compromising Criminal Cases, which states:

DR 304 Compromising Criminal Cases

A member shall not make any promises or arrangements with prisoners or between a suspect and his victim intended to permit the offender to escape the full penalty provided by law, or interfere with the courts, or for personal gain or benefit, use their official position to make any arrangements for any suspect or prisoner to escape prosecution.

A secondary issue related to this investigation centers upon the actions of Lt. Eric Kelly and whether his actions transcend the standards of the Memphis Police Department. These standards are established in the Memphis Police Department's DR-108 Truthfulness, which states:

DR 108 Truthfulness

A member shall not give any information, either oral or written, in connection with any assignment or investigation that is either knowingly incorrect, false, or deceitful.

In his statement to ISB investigators, Kelly stated he did not provide marijuana to Stafford. He also stated he did not refer her to anyone to buy marijuana. In his text message exchanges with Stafford he clearly indicates his intent. Photo log page 2, 3, 4

Stafford was adamant in her statement to investigators that Kelly provided her with marijuana on numerous occasions.

- She explained Kelly would bring her marijuana in a McDonald's bag when she would be at his apartment.
- She went with Kelly to pick up marijuana from one of Kelly's male friends.
- Before they went out of town together, Kelly brought her marijuana to take on the trip. Before they left he was present when she smoked it.

In his statement to investigators Kelly spent a considerable amount of time attempting to minimize the seriousness of Kelly's charge. He was intentionally deceitful when he stated prosecutors would use Stafford as a witness in the case. Stafford stated to investigators she had not been contacted by the prosecutor's office and was still a defendant in the murder case.

A third issue related to this investigation centers upon the actions of Lt. Eric Kelly and whether his actions transcend the standards of the Memphis Police Department. These standards are established in the Memphis Police Department's DR-608 Accessing Reports & Records with No Legitimate Purpose which states:

DR 608 Accessing Reports & Records with No Legitimate Purpose

A member shall not access official offense reports, departmental records or information concerning police matters without a legitimate law enforcement purpose.

Stafford informed Kelly she had a warrant in Haywood County. Kelly asked for her date of birth, social security number and driver license number. Kelly informed Stafford, "I don't see nothing" and "u have a suspended license..that's all I see..." Photo Log page 27, 28

According to Kelly's Memphis Police Department Watson Report Audit, he queried Stafford on December 12, 2018, at 11:08 pm, 11:09 pm, 11:20 pm and 11:21 pm. He advised in his statement to ISB investigators that he did this for personal reasons which is a direct violation of the policy.

The next issue related to this investigation centers upon the actions of Lt. Eric Kelly and whether his actions transcend the standards of the Memphis Police Department. These standards are established in the Memphis Police Department's DR-903 Unauthorized Passengers, which states in part:

DR 903 Unauthorized Passengers

A member shall not allow unauthorized passengers to ride in any vehicle of this Department, unless specifically authorized by competent authority and in compliance with Department orders and directives.

In his statement to investigators, Kelly admitted on August 28, 2018, Stafford rode with him in a city issued vehicle to Montgomery, Alabama on a work related trip. Kelly advised he did not receive permission from his supervisor to allow Stafford to travel on the trip.

The next issue related to this investigation centers upon the actions of Lt. Eric Kelly and whether his actions transcend the standards of the Memphis Police Department. These standards are established in the Memphis Police Department's DR-125 Member Under Investigation, which states:

DR 125 Member Under Investigation

A member shall immediately submit a written memo to their supervisor/ commanding officer that they are under investigation by any law enforcement agency, or any regulatory agency. A member shall immediately submit a written memo to their supervisor/ commanding officer that they have been issued a misdemeanor citation or citation for any misdemeanor offense (including traffic citations while off-duty), arrested for any misdemeanor/felony offense or is being sued in a court of law.

In his statement to ISB investigators, Kelly advised he was issued a citation for speeding in Alabama by a trooper on the way back to Memphis from Alabama. Upon returning to Memphis he did not inform his supervisor in a written memo that he was issued a citation.

The final issue related to this investigation centers upon the actions of Lt. Eric Kelly and whether his actions transcend the standards of the Memphis Police Department. These standards are established in the Memphis Police Department's DR-110 Consorting with Persons of Bad or Criminal Reputation, which states:

DR 110 Consorting With Persons of Bad or Criminal Reputation

A member of this department shall not knowingly socialize or have a business relationship with another person, who has been imprisoned or convicted of a felony, or who are known criminals, except in the performance of their official police duties.

Prior to being arrested for, Accessory after the Fact to wit: First Degree Murder, for which Kelly charged her, Stafford had been arrested a total of ten (10) times. Her charges range from Possession of a Controlled Substance, Driving Offenses, Shoplifting, Drug Paraphernalia to Underage Drinking. Her adult criminal history started in the year 2009 and has even continued since her arrest in the murder investigation. She was arrested September 7, 2018, again for Shoplifting. Kelly advised ISB investigators he was aware of her criminal history and gang affiliation. He stated police in her county were aware of her criminal history, yet he engaged in a relationship with a known criminal gang member.

➤ Sgt. Sheila Green

During the investigation it was revealed Stafford traveled on a work related overnight trip to Montgomery, Alabama with Sgt. Green and Lt. Kelly. Stafford was not authorized by the City of Memphis to attend the trip. Stafford also stayed the night in Kelly's hotel room which was rented by the City of Memphis. Sgt. Green admitted in her statement she did not report these facts to anyone of her supervisors. Green was also traveling with Lt. Kelly when he received a traffic citation in Alabama. She also chose to not report the improper conduct of speeding in a city vehicle to a supervisor. This is a violation of

Memphis Police Department's DR 127 Reporting Improper Conduct which states:

DR 127 Reporting Improper Conduct

A member shall immediately report to the Department any violation of Policies and Regulations or any other improper conduct which is contrary to the policy, order, or directives of the Department.

Q: Please state your name for the record.

A: Bridgett Stafford.

Q: Speak up a little bit.

A: Bridgett Stafford.

Q: Are you aware that this statement is being recorded?

A: Yes sir.

Q: Ms. Stafford, what is your reason for coming here to our office today?

A: Uh Sgt. Kelly I guess I would say.

Q: Ok. Pertaining to?

A: Oh pertaining to?

Q: Yeah.

A: Sgt. Kelly um Eric Kelly, I don't know what to say.

Q: Alright. But what, what made you reach out to your attorney to contact us?

A: Um I was contacted by you guys and then ok, I got a phone call from Internal Affairs and then I called my attorney and he told me that I had to meet him here so.

Q: Who called you from Internal Affairs?

A: I don't know. I called it back and the woman couldn't tell me.

Q: What day was this?

A: This was um hold on a second. This was um May the 15th, May the 15th.

Q: Ok so someone called you from Internal Affairs on May 15th?

A: Um-hmm.

Q: But you didn't talk to them or nothing?

A: No.

Q: They left a message or something?

A: No.

Q: Well how did you...

A: I don't have a voice mail. I called, I called the number back and whenever they answered they said Internal Affairs and I asked her who had called me earlier and she said, she asked my name and I told her my name. She said she had no idea so that's when I contacted my attorney.

Q: Ok. But when did you contact your attorney?

A: Same day.

Q: On May 15th?

A: Yes.

Q: Ok and so, but you just, your attorney contacted us last week.

A: Ok.

Q: Pertaining to that same phone call?

A: Yes.

Q: Ok. Ms. Stafford, when did you first meet Eric Kelly? Under what circumstances?

A: Um I first met him in the interrogation room uh when I was arrested for Accessory after the fact, first degree murder on the uh, um Eric Curry's case. I mean Mr. Curry, yes Curry.

Q: You know, you remember when that was?

A: That was April the 26th, 2018. No wait, it was a couple days after I went to jail so I went to jail on the 26th. I was arrested and then they pulled me out and took me to North Main Street and that's when I had met Sgt. Kelly.

Q: Ok and can you briefly explain your involvement in the criminal case involvement with Sgt. Kelly?

A: As in like...?

Q: Just...

A: like briefly...?

Q: What was your involvement in the case?

A: What was my involvement in the case?

Q: In the case, yes.

A: In the case like with him or?

Q: Yes it involved the case that he, that you met him up under those circumstances when he inter, before he interrogated you. The case when they got you out of jail.

A: I'm, I'm confused. Ok.

Q: What I'm asking is, you was, what was you arrested for?

A: Um yes. Accessory after the fact, first degree murder.

Q: Who, who and who charged you with that?

A: Sgt. Eric Kelly.

Q: Ok. Can you explain that case that he charged you with accessory with?

A: The reason that I was charged?

Q: Yes.

A: He claims that I drove the um, um the murder, I mean the murderer to the cell phone store and they spent um $1500 dollars on cell phones and used the dead man's credit card.

Q: Can you explain the interrogation, when you got interrogated?

A: Uh yes. The first thing he said to me was 'I'll fuck the shit out of you'. Yeah. And I was like 'sir what does that have to do with this case?' and, and he kept on. He was like, 'Well um what do you do? Do you uh do you sell pussy?' and I was like, 'No, I'm not a prostitute.' And he was like, 'Well are you a dancer?' And I was like, 'No I'm not a dancer.' And he was like, 'Well why not?' and I was like, 'Well I guess I would say that it's just like I find it' I don't know how to explain it but just it's not right you know. And well eventually he talked me into dancing and all that stuff but yeah.

Q: Ok but after...

A: Eventually.

Q: Ok so during the interrogation he was asking you this before he interrogated you or during?

A: No, this was after we were in a relationship and all that stuff like.

Q: Ok so after the interrogation did you, when was the next time you saw him?

A: Um in court. Yep in court and downtown.

Q: Ok did y'all, did you....

A: He kept telling me to call him and text him.

Q: Did he give you his number?

A: Yeah, he did. I have two different numbers.

Q: So he gave you the number at the when you went to court?

A: Yes.

Q: Did you...

A: He gave me the number in the interrogation room, gave me the card like.

Q: Ok.

A: Yeah.

Q: So he the number...

A: A card.

Q: A card.

A: Yes.

Q: So he gave you his personal cell phone number?

A: Yes I have that too.

Q: When did he give you that?

A: Um, I don't really, I don't know which one is his personal one but I got two numbers.

Q: Which number, what's the first number he gave you?

A: That's in an old cell phone. Y'all should have that. I don't know. I mean.

Q: Ok. Alright. So.

A: I can look....

Q: During the interrogation he gave you a card with a number on it.

A: Yes.

Q: And then your next court appearance, how long was that before your next court appearance?

A: Uh probably a few days maybe.

Q: Ok. Then he gave you another number then?

A: Um-hmm.

Q: Ok.

A: Yes.

Q: So what, what happened, did you call him?

A: Yes I called him. I didn't at first but then um I sent, well wait a minute. I bonded out of jail, he gave me the number, I didn't call him at first, I waited a couple of weeks and then I called him and he asked to take me to dinner and all that stuff and then we went to dinner and that's when it all started.

Q: Ok so y'all went to dinner?

A: Um-hmm.

Q: So the, the first time you called him after court...

A: Um-hmm.

Q: There was no discussion about the case or anything like that, it was immediately do you want to go to dinner?

A: Uh yes basically. Well he had told me if I would have come to him first, he wished that he, that I would have come to him or come and talk to him first that way that I wouldn't have never had been arrested or he wouldn't had to issue a warrant for my arrest and yeah that I wouldn't had to make bond and all that stuff so.

Q: Ok.

A: Yeah but yeah.

Q: But then after that it did turn, it was more of a social than professional?

A: Yes.

Q: Did he make any threats, promises, or coercion related to your criminal charges in exchange for a relationship?

A: No.

Q: Now what did your relationship, what did it evolve into? You said after dinner, y'all had dinner.

A: Well we went to the gun range and then took me to the gun range to shoot his guns. Most of the time I just stayed in his apartment. I mean I knew he had a girlfriend so, so like I don't know. He had two different houses and yeah, I would stay at one in Midtown most of the time.

Q: Did y'all have sexual intercourse?

A: Yes.

Q: How often did y'all have sexual intercourse?

A: Uh several times. You mean like how often?

Q: Yeah well, well you said you stayed at his house, how often did you stay at this house?

A: Uh I would be back and forward during the week. Some, sometimes I would stay 4 to 5 days a week.

Q: At a time?

A: Um-hmm.

Q: How would you get over there?

A: He would come get me.

Q: Did you, was you over there alone?

A: Alone?

Q: Yeah was you ever at the house alone?

A: Yes.

Q: Ok. Did you have any the code or anything to his alarm?

A: Yes I know his code.

Q: Ok. do you still know his code now?

A: was the last I mean I haven't been up there and checked. I'm sure he's changed it now but.

Q: Ok. How did you get the code?

A: He gave it to me.

Q: So throughout your relationship with him did y'all ever, did he ever provide you with money or anything?

A: Yes he use to CashApp me money all the time. He used to by me weed, just yeah.

Q: You said he use to buy you weed?

A: Yes.

Q: How would he buy you weed?

A: Oh uh some guy he knew. Um you guys have the text messages and all that other stuff. I don't know really the dudes name but I know that some guy he knew he would get it from him and he would bring it to me and that's it.

Q: Did you ever meet the person?

A: Yes.

Q: You went over, how did you meet him?

A: With him. Like he took me over there.

Q: So you met him with Kelly?

A: Yes. Um-hmm.

Q: Y'all was together?

A: Yes.

Q: So explain that. Just how, how did that happen? How did that occur?

A: We went to buy weed.

Q: What I mean is did you ask him or did he ask you?

A: He knows that I like to smoke weed and he bought it for me. Like he, he'd ask if I need some weed and he went and got it.

Q: Can you, can you describe the guy that, that you got it from?

A: He's kind of taller, bigger, black dude. Um little heavy set but I can't remember his name.

Q: Age range at all?

A: I would say he was like mid 30's, late 30's.

Q: Do you remember what part of town he was in?

A: I don't. It's in the text message and stuff it had the address and all of that stuff in there but yeah.

Q: Ok.

A: I can't remember off like the top of my head.

Q: Thanks.

Q: Did he, did Kelly ever provide you with any other drugs?

A: No I don't do any other drugs. I just smoke weed.

Q: Just smoke marijuana. When you were in his apartment, did he have guns at his apartment?

A: Yes. Yes he has guns.

Q: And, and did you ever have access to those guns?

A: Of course.

Q: How did you have access to them?

A: I mean they were laying everywhere.

Q: He didn't keep them anywhere secure?

A: Sometimes he'd keep them put up in the case in the closet but most of the time he'd have them laying here and there and pistol on the counter, two three here.

Q: They just be out? They just be out. So how many guns, by number?

A: Uh how many did he have in his apartment? I know one, two, three, four, five guns for sure in this apartment.

Q: Did you ever take any pictures...

A: Yes.

Q: Or anything with the guns?

A: Yes.

Q: Ok. Did he know you took the pictures with them?

A: Yes. He wanted to do a photoshoot with the, with his BMW but we didn't do that.

Q: Oh ok. Did, did he take the pictures?

A: No I took the pictures.

Q: You took the pictures yourself?

A: Yes. Yes.

Q: But he was there?

A: No he wasn't there when I took 'em.

Q: Alright.

A: No.

Q: But he was aware...

A: Yes.

Q: That you had took the pictures?

A: He seen the pictures, yes.

Q: Ok. You said he provided you with money to buy, to buy weed, anything else he provide you money for?

A: Yes he have a Cash App uh like it was like I think like $2000, $3000 dollars' worth of Cash App back and forward. It would say just little stuff at the bottom like please get on your hustle or like stuff like that. Yeah. He brought all my stripper clothes.

Q: Now how did you, you said earlier that he convinced you to become a stripper. How did he do that?

A: Like he talked me into it because really I mean it's like telling me that I could have more than most people and this and that and you know he was like well that I could go and be a dancer and that I could have these girls do whatever I want them to do and so basically trying to turn me into a female pimp. I don't know. But yeah.

Q: So you said you eventually started stripping?

A: I did and I quit.

Q: Where?

A: At the Gold Club. I got a job at the Gold Club. They hired me at VLive, they hired me at the Purple Diamond, I never went there.

Q: How did you, how did you get the job at the Gold Club?

A: Um I went up there and told them I wanted a job.

Q: Did he have anything to do with you getting that job?

A: Yes. He took me to the place to get the job.

Q: So he took you to the Gold Club?

A: Yes. He picked me up from there in the police car once when I got off. And he was scared that he was going to get in trouble. So the manager walked me to the side cause they have to walk us out you know, yeah.

Q: He picked you up in a marked police car?

A: Yes.

Q: When was that?

A: It was...

Q: Approximately?

A: Oh approximately before Christmas. It was like November.

Q: Ok.

A: Yeah.

Q: When you say he helped you get the job, how did he help you get the job?

A: No he just like told me he just like pushed me toward it. He didn't help like go in and talk to him or nothing like that you know. He just, yeah.

Q: So he had no connection with anyone at the Gold Club?

A: No.

Q: Or nothing like that?

A: Not that I know of.

Q: Ok you mentioned VLive, another club.

A: Yes, I worked there a couple days and I quit but.

Q: And how did you get that job?

A: Um actually from another girl that was working there.

Q: It wasn't, it wasn't Kelly?

A: Nah it wasn't him.

Q: Did you ever take any trips or anything him?

A: I did.

Q: What trip?

A: I went to um, um it was, he had the, I can't remember the freakin name of it. It wasn't that far away. I went with him and another detective. Um they were going on a case, I guess to question someone that was in holding and um I did, I went with them and we, we went to the hotel room.

Q: Alabama.

A: Alabama. That's it. And we got pulled over by the state trooper.

Q: Now who all went on that trip? You said another detective?

A: It was me, Kelly, and the, the black lady. She has a wife, she's married to a woman. She's a detective.

Q: Ok.

A: And the detective lady works at Cypress Lodge hotel that her girlfriend or wife, the wife is. Not this detective. The detective's wife.

Q: Ok the detective's wife. It's Cypress?

A: Cypress Lodge. You see Kelly's son work there too yeah. I guess they were friends too.

Q: So on the trip you talked with, you talked with the detective?

A: Um-hmm.

Q: The wife?

A: Yes.

Q: Y'all had conversation?

A: Yes.

Q: That's how you found out, is that how you found out she worked at Cypress Lodge?

A: Yes. Yes.

Q: So it was four people total that went on the trip?

A: No it was just us three. The wife stayed at home. We, when we picked the, ok when we picked up the other detective, we picked him up from, we picked her up from her house, home so her wife and her were in the yard standing outside when we pulled up and he introduced us and we smoked and well me and the wife smoked and then we left.

Q: Ok so only three people, you, Kelly, and the other detective...

A: The other detective.

Q: Went on the trip to Alabama?

A: Right. Right.

Q: Ok.

Q: And when you said you all 'smoked'...

A: Yes.

Q: Before y'all?

A: Me and the detective's wife smoked. The cops didn't smoke.

Q: Ok. Where were they at?

A: They were right there.

Q: Were y'all inside the house, outside the house?

A: We were outside in the yard just standing there really.

Q: Ok.

A: Yes.

Q: Ms. Stafford, are you in a gang?

A: Um yes, I'm not an active gang member. I'm affiliated with but yes that's my past life. Yes.

Q: What gang?

A: Um that would be the Gangster Disciples.

Q: Was Kelly, did he know about this?

A: Yes he does know about this. He use to throw like slick signs like he was blood or something you know like he used to, I don't know. Just text messages and stuff and then the guy we pulled up to get the weed from and he was like 'How long you gone be out here blood cuz' you know just yeah just little slick stuff he would say so.

Q: Now hold up, so how often did you and were you with Kelly when y'all would go and buy weed?

A: Um most of the time he would go get it himself but I've been with him two or three times before.

Q: So he would go and get weed and then you all would get back, get together and?

A: He would come drop it off at the apartment um.

Q: At his apartment?

A: Yeah. I would be at the apartment and he'd bring it to me. I'd meet him outside sometimes or he'd bring it up in like a McDonald's bag or something yeah. Yeah.

Q: Was it always from the same person?

A: What?

Q: Was it always, did he always get the weed from the same person?

A: Oh I'm assuming so. I mean that's the only person I ever seen him buy it from so yeah. He'd say I call, I got to call my guy so. And... wait a minute, ok and out of town in, when we got pulled over in the squad car or whatever, I had like weed with me then. And I don't know if they have evidence that wasn't tagged or whatever in the back or whatever but yeah there was weed in the car. It was like a big bag of weed in the car that I had that he had bought me and brought on the trip. So I was like freaking out in the back seat and he was like 'Is everybody a licensed officer' or yeah.

Q: Did he know, did, did Eric know about that weed?

A: Yes. Yes.

Q: So he knew you brought weed on the trip?

A: Yes. He, he went and brought it for me to bring on the trip.

Q: Oh. Ok.

A: Yes.

Q: Had you ever talked to the guy that he would buy the weed from about your relationship with Kelly?

A: No.

Q: Did you ever talk to him at all?

A: Um I've texted him like maybe once or twice. I went and picked up some weed from him once I know for sure.

Q: Did y'all talk?

A: No.

Q: Y'all didn't talk at all?

A: No.

Q: Now what's the status of your criminal case..

A: Um

Q: That you?

A: Right now?

Q: Yes. What's the status of it?

A: I'm still going to court. Like I have court on the 17th so I'm still downtown.

Q: So you're still a defendant in that case?

A: Yes sir.

Q: Kelly never talked to you regarding that case as far as the other defendants or anything?

A: No.

Q: Have you talked to anyone from the prosecutor's office regarding the case?

A: No.

Q: So you still a defendant?

A: Yes.

Q: As of today?

A: Yes.

Q: When was the last time you spoke with him?

A: I um, I would say a good couple of months ago, probably two maybe three months ago.

Q: And what did y'all talk about?

A: Um the last thing I did was get my title from him. He had the title of my car in a safe at this apartment and I went and got that. As a matter of fact that was February the 14th. I had a wreck that day on Valentine's Day.

Q: So that was the last time you talked to him?

A: Yes.

Q: Did you see him around that time too?

A: Yes I saw him that day.

Q: That day?

A: Yes. I went to his apartment and got my title to my car and my safe.

Q: Did y'all discuss the case or anything that was going on?

A: No. I had just had a wreck and I was like really freaked out cause I had already talked to you guys about it. I was like nervous that he might have knew so I was just trying to hurry up and just leave so yeah. I didn't know.

Q: When did y'all stop communicating?

A: Um before Christmas, right before Christmas.

Q: And why was that?

A: Uh cause I had left and went back to home with my kids, like their dad had went to jail and, and he was mad cause I still could like go to work and try to make some money. You know I had three kids at home and like a house that my baby daddy had just lost and like got locked up. He's still in there now but yeah I was going through a lot of stuff and so that's when we stopped talking.

Q: Now as far as, you said he was, tell you about how much money you should be coming out with and everything. Did he, did you ever give him any money or anything?

A: Who Eric?

Q: Yes.

A: No.

Q: Did he ever ask for any money?

A: No he wanted me to like pay him back or give him some money back when I got straight or just make sure that he was ok but I've never gave him money no.

Q: Ok.

Q: So did, you said earlier that he convinced, convinced you to start stripping, that was when you talked about how he talked to you but just encouraging you?

A: Yes. Yes.

Q: When you went out of town on that trip to Alabama, where, where did you stay?

A: In the motel room with him.

Q: With him?

A: Um-hmm and the uh the other lady next door.

Q: Ok. How did y'all pay for meals or anything like that? Do you remember? Did he make you pay for your own?

A: Um no. Actually he got it. Y'all have like a certain amount that y'all can get that yeah, yeah. So that's how he paid for our meals. It's like a certain amount of money that y'all have they will allow y'all to pay for y'all's meals. Yeah he paid like that.

Q: Ok I gotcha. I gotcha. Did you see, you mentioned when you got pulled over that the officer asked you a question?

A: Well I was in the backseat. We were all in regular clothes and uh he asked were we all um de, what do you, do we all have badge numbers or licensed officers or whatever. But then the other lady went to talking to him and he never said anything else about it. So I ...

Q: Ok so that was never an issue?

A: I Just sat back there and was quiet. Yeah.

Q: Gotcha. Thank you.

Q: You said the last time you talked to him was February 14th, you, he had the title to your vehicle. How did he have the, why did he have the title?

A: I had a safe there at his house and um.

Q: It was actually your safe?

A: Yes, yes, it was my safe.

Q: Why did you have a safe at this house?

A: Um because I had moved like houses and I was staying there and in between my mom's house and his house so yeah.

Q: So, did you consider him a, a, what did you consider y'all's relationship?

A: I don't, I don't know. I, I don't know cause he had a girlfriend and like or a wife and I don't know, it's just weird.

Q: But you would stay over there...

A: Yes.

Q: Four to five times a week?

A: Yes. Yes.

Q: You had a safe over his house?

A: It's like, yes. Yes I did.

Q: When you were over to his house did you ever meet any of his friends, coworkers?

A: I met his son. I have met two coworkers. Uh Frias, how do you say his name Frias or something? Uh and there was a taller black guy said that he, um let me see what's his name, I don't know. I can't remember his name but it was a, they were both detectives too. They'd come over there and have a drink or whatever I guess on lunch or something. Yeah.

Q: And what would you be doing when they was over there?

A: Oh they were only there one time.

Q: Oh were they?

A: Yeah.

Q: And did he introduce you?

A: Um yes he did. Yes.

Q: What did he introduce you as?

A: But he didn't introduce me as my name.

Q: Ok.

A: Like he'd call me Snow or he called me Aqua. That's him.

Q: You said he would what now?

A: He called me Aqua.

Q: Aqua?

A: Yeah.

Q: Now did they know that he had charged you in a criminal case?

A: No he just told them that I was his um secret baby momma or some shit. Yeah.

Q: Ok.

A: Yeah.

Q: Did he try to help you get any other jobs or anything besides stripping?

A: Um yeah he used I was um gonna get a night shift I mean a night audit shift at the Cypress Lodge and um and never like I never went to it. I didn't go to it the next day. We got into it and yeah so I never showed up for that one. But I was supposed to get an interview he had me an interview at the Cypress Lodge for a night audit shift.

Q: Ok. Had he ever introduced to anyone else besides those couple of coworkers that came over to the house?

A: Um no. No, his son, that's about it. I mean I seen his son. He came over once but no, no body else.

Q: Ok. So you did give a, did you give a statement to another law enforcement agency here besides us?

A: Uh no I don't.

Q: In regards Kelly?

A: No I haven't. Yes. Yes. Yes.

Q: Ok. With the FBI?

A: Yes.

Q: You talked to the FBI?

A: Yes. Yes. Yes, yes, yes, yes.

Q: And do you have anything new or relevant to add...

A: Uh.

Q: Other than from what you gave the FBI? Anything new? Nothing?

A: No.

Q: Ok Ms. Stafford, is there anything else you would like to add that may aid us in this investigation?

A: No.

Q: Do you wish to have an advisor present?

A: Yes sir.

Q: Advisor, please state your name and IBM.

A: Essica Cage, IBM 1705.

Q: Lieutenant Kelly, were you the case investigator in the murder investigation?

A: Yes sir.

Q: Can you briefly explain what happened in that case?

A: Uh, there was a male who was, whose body was located, uh, up near Covington Pike, um, uh, had been beaten. Uh, the investigation, uh, led us, um, it ultimately resulted in locating several people who had either witnessed or, or participated on one way, on one level or another, uh, uh, in the homicide. So it required us to take statements and this, that and the other. We, uh, ultimately charged, uh, uh, the main people involved with it. And then there was some people who saw stuff, uh, that, um, that we were trying track down. And, um, there was people that, um, we also issued warrants, uh, for, uh, accessory after the fact.

Q: Now who was charged in that investigation?

A: Eric Curry and...oh, I cannot think of the other, uh, name, dude's name, uh, but it was another male, uh, white. I cannot think of his name off the top of my head right now. Uh, they were charged with, uh, his, his homicide.

Q: Okay, you, um, mentioned accessory.

A: Yes sir.

Q: Who was charged with accessory?

A: We issued, or I issued, uh, ultimately issued warrants on people for, uh, accessory because of a, during the course of the investigation, they were supposedly present and witnessed certain things, uh, and the, the fact of the matter is that, uh, the accessory after the fact charge was a, truly a thin charge, uh, but there was enough, I was able to articulate enough to get the warrants issued based off of statements that had been taken from people that were there after getting, uh, certain people identified and stuff and were, were able to get the warrants issued. But really it was more of, uh, a ploy to get people in to make the case more solid. The people who were, uh, actually issued, uh, uh, the accessory warrants, if you look at their statements, they actually gave more witness statement, uh, statements in regards to it and they were being treated as far as I know by the prosecution as, as witnesses in the particular matter.

Q: So who did you charge with accessory after the fact?

A: Uh, Bridgette Stafford and, uh, there was another male, um, whose name escapes -- Michael McGehee.

Q: Now how was Bridgette Stafford developed as a suspect?

A: Um, one of the, one of the witnesses involved had-had said that they were, uh, there was, there was some females in the room, uh, who could verify some comings and goings. They did not see the murder occur, um, but they could verify certain stuff that the witness had said. So again, back to my making, making, uh, the stuff done, uh, making the case more solid, so. Uh, also the witnesses had advised that the people that were in this room had, uh, taken possession of the, the victims cards and had supposedly, uh, um, used them to purchase some stuff. So I did some, some following up and was to, to track some stuff down. And based off of what the witness said and stuff that I was able to gather and was able to identify, uh, uh, two people for sure. I wanna say -- yeah, it was just those two people that I was able to positively identify.

Q: So was Bridgette Stafford ever arrested?

A: Ultimately, uh, the-the-the progression of what happened was once I identified her, I actually, uh, tried to make contact through, uh, to her because, again, the warrant was really thin, uh, as far as actually charging them with-with a true accessory after the fact, you know. Truly accessory after the fact is someone knowingly and willingly participates in something or what have you to get, um, uh, to-- and-and-- Like if somebody gets killed, like if me and, me and, uh, Ms. Cage are here and we kill you and he's sitting right there and he knows that we killed you and then I go through your pockets and I, and I take your credit card and-and he, and then I take that credit card and pass it to, to him, he knows that we killed you and get away. On this particular case, that's what happened. A man was killed. These people didn't see the killing, they didn't see a body or anything, the people I charged with accessory, but they were in a room where the suspects were. So I needed to get with them to talk to them to, to get a statement from them. Truly wanted to treat them as, have them as witnesses, that was the ultimate thing. And ultimately, um, I made contact with, um, the mother of Ms. Stafford and advised who I was -- "Look, I need to speak with her about this case. She's not in any trouble, but I really need to talk to her. But I-- but it can go, uh, further, but I really don't want it to." -- was the exact conversation. I-- Then I also contact Tipton County Sheriff's Department and, and inquired with them about her. They were really familiar with her because she, from past records. They go and attempt to try to locate her, um, and uh had negative results and stuff. So after several months of back and forth, calling up there, advising, "Hey, just tell her to come down and give a statement," this, that and the other, uh, ultimately I was able to, uh, creatively articulate enough PC to issue a warrant. It was-- but the, the PC was thin, but I was again able to creatively articulate.

Q: How was you able to contact her mother?

A: Uh, research in-in, in WASP, uh, and located a phone number.

Q: Phone number.

A: Phone number, address and just on, on top of that.

Q: So you-- at that time, you did make contact with Bridgette Stafford.

A: No sir.

Q: You didn't talk to her?

A: Mm-mm.

Q: So when was the first time you talked to Bridgette Stafford?

A: She ultimately, uh, if I remember correctly, got picked up on the warrant on a traffic stop. And after the traffic stop, was taken to Jail East. And, uh, we had officers transport her to 170 N. Main -- I think we were at 170 N. Main at the time -- to interview her.

Q: So you interviewed her. You, you know, you know when that was, the date?

A: I don't remember a date. Uh, if you look at her, if we're able to hold of the case file, the date that the statement was taken would be on her, on her statement.

Q: Okay. Um, who did you question her with? You did say you interviewed her. Who'd you interview her with?

A: Yes sir. Uh, I wanna say it was, uh, he was detective then, but now he's Sergeant Frias. I believe he was the one -- he typically goes, uh, helps me with the interviews.

Q: Can you explain your interactions with Stafford during that interview?

A: She was brought in. Uh, I had the officers put her in the thing, uh, in the interview room. Um, sat her down. Uh, sh-- uh, um, asked her if she needed water, to use the bathroom. Uh, ultimately we go back in with a Advice of Rights form and several photospreads and-and, um, and other stuff-stuff related to the homicide case and-and what have you. My spill that I typically go with people is, uh, I pride myself on, uh, being straight up with people and letting them make their own decisions one which way they go. So I, I explained to her, uh, that I had been, been making several efforts to, to get in touch with her and what have you and that I really didn't wanna have to put the warrant out on her, but I needed to get her in here, uh, and that she had been charged with Accessory because I could prove on a certain level that she, um, uh, had possibly spent, used his credit card along with some other people. Uh, she didn't go in and swipe or do or this, that and the other -- cus like I said, I-I got creative with, with the PC for the warrant. I got cre--uh, and basically told her this, this, this something that you can be charged with, you can go court on it. But I said, "What I need you for is, is to be honest with me, tell me what you saw." I told her, I said, "I don't think that you killed or played a hand on a particular person, but I need to, you to tell me what you, what you know." And she, uh, was a little bit apprehensive and stuff. Uh, she's very street savvy, uh, and paranoid, uh, based off of my interaction--uh--actions with her and stuff. And ultimately, uh, Advice of Rights was given, she signed it, she said she wanted to talk, she said she was gonna be honest, and she was for the most part. I think she was for the most part honest with, with, uh -- she told me what I expected her to tell me.

Q: That was your first contact with her?

A: Yes sir.

Q: Now specifically during the interview, did you state to her, uh, that you would fuck the shit out of her and, uh, during the interview did you ask her did she sell pussy?

A: No. No. Never, um... we-we interviewed her about the case, we talked about her personal life and what she was going on, was going through. Um, uh, um... I, I mentioned to her and told her, I was like, "I'm gone give you a card." I said, "I'ma gi--" uh, "If you," I said, "if you-- You don't seem like you're a bad person, but you're running around. You-You're a female that's a high-ranking GD." I said, "You know gangsters and associate with people that I've put in jail on- on charges and stuff." And I said, "It-It makes no sense," I said, you know, "If-If you have an issue--" I said, "With you having that stuff looming o-o-over you," um, I said, "what you need to do is you need to try to get yourself together, you need to go back to school, you need to get you a job, and then what happens is when-when-when this goes to court, if they use you as a witness, you will be-- you can sit on the stand and be able to say, 'Okay, this is what I'm doing with my life.'" But never did I ever during an interview of any type say that 'I'll fuck the shit out you' at, at that particular time.

Q: Did you, you said you gave her a card. What number, what's on the card? What-What's on the card?

A: Uh, the, the, it would've been the, uh, the uh City, uh...I wanna say I had c-- yeah, I had the card, it had the, uh, City of Memphis, uh, phone number.

Q: What phone number was that?

A:

Q: Was any personal information exchanged during or after the interview?

A: No, I t-- I told her if y-- if you needed some help or wanted some guidance or whatever, I told her, I said, "You feel free to call back up here." I said, "I talk to people I've put in jail all the time, they call up here." I said, "But if you're trying do something -- y-you say you wanna do this" -- she had some kids that-that she, uh, was very proud of and stuff, and I said, "Well, with the rate you're going, you're gonna be on the bad end of this." I said, "If you want some help," I said, "you can contact me and I'll help you as best I can."

Q: But you knew at that first interview she was a, uh, she's an active Gangster Disciple?

A: During the c-- well, I just, uh, assumed that from what I could see on her page, on her Facebook page.

Q: Okay.

A: Uh, and after interviewing, she-she freely admits that-that-that she was a gang member.

Q: Okay, cool. Thanks, I didn't, I didn't realize she was active.

A: Mm.

Q: Did you give her your personal phone number?

A: Ultimately when, when uh she-she contacted me, we d-- we developed a, uh, a relationship, uh, that, uh, evolved into where I, uh, did give her, uh, a personal phone number and told her to--

Q: What phone number was that?

A:

Q: After the interview, did you see, did you see her again and when?

A: Yes sir. Uh, she ultimately ended up contacting, uh, me. We spoke on the phone. Uh, talked to her, uh, a-a-about her life -- she was telling me what she wanted to do and what she was trying to do, but she was having difficulty doing it because she didn't have a job, her and her mother didn't get along, didn't have a place for the kids, didn't have a vehicle, blah-blah, all that stuff. I said, "Okay. I'll tell you what I'm gonna do in this particular situation." Uh, I said, "I'm-I'm gonna assist you, uh, a-as best I can with it." I-I said, "If you show me that you are trying to do something with yourself, I will go above and beyond with, with assisting your way." I said, "You-You seem like you-you have some, uh, a good head on your shoulders--" so I did... So one of the first things that I did was she, um, had a court appearance on something unrelated to, uh, the Accessory charge. Uh, she was at court with somebody at 201 Poplar and stuff. I saw her and spoke with her and-and, um, and uh I said, "Look," I said-- then I point to a courtroom, I said, "You," I said, "You-You, You, uh, for you-you..." -- she smoked weed and-and, uh, possibly did pills and stuff. I said, "If you got a drug problem," I said, "this court right here," I said, "I know this judge," and it was Judge Dwyer's courtroom. I said, "Well, come down here. I'll take you and I'ma introduce you to this man and see what programs they have available for you." I said, "I think the way that his court works is that you actually have to have a charge in there." I said, "But I know this man." I said, "Every time he sees me we speak and I used to go in the courtroom all the time from when I used to deal with street stuff." I said, "He's a great dude." So ultimately -- I don't know if it was that day or another day -- we were down there and I introduced her to him, they shake hands, uh, and he talks to me and he tell me kinda what I already knew, was that if she wasn't active, didn't have an active case, that he couldn't directly do-- but he recommended somewhere for her to-to go. Take the information, I give it to her and stuff and I said, "Look, you need to go--" I said, "This-- you're, you're--" He had his secretary call over to the place to do whatever it is they do and the thing." I said, "Okay, so here's the start of this. You-You-You do this," and what have you. She didn't have a job. I had her, uh, to, uh, my-my-- I work a lot, I don't have an opportunity to-to, uh, clean, uh, my place as much as I do, so I said, "Look this what I'll do. I'll pay you, uh-uh, periodically to clean my apartment and we put some-some-some money in your pocket and it's a legit thing," or what have you. So, that-- that occurred. Um, she--

Q: Let me stop real quick.

A: Yes sir.

Q: How long after the interview was this?

A: Uh, w-- if I had to guess, some weeks.

Q: Can you estimate?

A: Some weeks.

Q: Weeks?

A: Yeah, cus she, uh...sh-she was in jail on the Accessory charge I guess until she, I don't know if she RR'd or bonded or, or what the, what the deal was with the particular matter.

Q: Okay. You can continue.

A: Um, so sh-- uh, that, that happened, uh, uh, sat and watched her attempt to register for school, um, at Southwest. Uh, I wanna say ultimately she ended up getting an acc--uh, uh, uh, an acceptance letter cus I remember her sending me a text, uh, or a picture of some type from Southwest saying that she had been accepted into-to school and stuff. And then she had a vehicle sh-sh-- up where she lived. She was living with a, a girl, uh, and that girl was in jail and, --uh, uh, in Tipton County -- and she was on, she had a vehicle that she said needed some work done. I said, "Okay, look, we need to make new steps," so I, uh, gave her some money. I s-- she said she had a, her brother-in-law was a mechanic and that, uh, she had the title to a vehicle, uh, and that she just needed the transmission to get fixed. I said, "Well, if that's all that's wrong with the vehicle, you know, how much and stuff?" Uh, she said, I wanna say she like $250. I said, "Well, you come up with what you can come up with and-and I'll match it, make the difference," or what have you. Time goes by, she ultimately can't come up with it so I said, Look, in 2000-- in the 2000s, when we were growing up it used to be food, clothing and shelter, that's all you needed to survive. But in the modern day you need five things -- you need food, clothing, shelter, communications, and transportation. So I said, "You've got the kids." I said, "Here's the money. Pay the mechanic to get your car fixed so that you can go get a job." She used to work at a hotel and she used to, if I remember correctly-- from what she was telling me--

Q: Let me stop you right quick.

A: Yes sir.

Q: I'm sorry. Uh, did the relationship become sexual?

A: Never, no sir. I can't have sex sir.

Q: Is that...

A: There was talk-- we-we talked, we bullshitted, we talked and stuff, but I-I, I have a, I have a OJI heart condition that's been going on for 2 ½ years and ever since I've had that heart condition I-I got-- if we just gone be frank about it, as-as much damn, shit, dick meat as I fucking got, I can't get a hard-on. I'm, it's-it's, no, no matter what pills I take, this, that and the other--

Q: Did y'all ever attempt to have sexual intercourse?

A: The-There was, there was talk, uh, and whatever you would-- There-There was, th-there was no con-- no.

Q: There was never anything physical? Did you--

A: No sir.

Q: What about a kiss? Anything?

A: No. No. She-She had spent the night at-at my, uh, um, uh, apartment before and-and I'm ultimately get to it and what have you. She-- at-at-at one point I lost communications with her -- I stopped talking to her, she, uh, stopped texting me -- and several months later, ended up, she ended up getting back in contact with me, homeless, didn't have a place to go, and this was right the day that me and, and, uh, Sergeant Green were getting ready to go on a trip and she is boo-hooing, crying and saying that, saying that she needed a place to go. I did-- wasn't gonna leave her at my place alone, so I-I made a decision at that time and said, "Look, just come on and-- I've got to go do this and get this taken care of, so come and go, uh, with-with me on this."

Q: But, she went with you where? You and Sergeant Green--

A: It was to, uh, it was to, uh, Alabama -- I forget the exact city, but south of Birmingham. Uh, it wasn't Birmingham so it was, it was south of Birmingham.

Q: Okay, you have Montgomery, Alabama.

A: Montgomery.

Q: Okay, so you, her, Sergeant Green?

A: Yes.

Q: And anybody else go?

A: No sir.

Q: Were you all pulled over for--

A: Yes sir.

Q: Did you drive?

A: Yes sir.

Q: You-- Were you all pulled over for a traffic violation at all?

A: Yes sir.

Q: Where was that at?

A: In-- that was coming back, mm, coming back, and we're north of Birmingham.

Q: You remember what highway?

A: I don't know if that's 72 or 78 -- the, the main highway there just north of, uh, Birmingham. We were actually coming west, uh...

Q: Did you get a citation?

A: Yes sir.

Q: What kind, uh, long ticket, short ticket?

A: It was, uh, the long ticket for the full speeding amount.

Q: How fast were you going?

A: Um, I don't remember the exact speed. I know the ticket was $327 if I didn't go to court. Uh, the-the, the-uh, but ultimately, uh, I spoke with them and, uh, spoke with the clerk's office there and they told me if I did a driving school up here and sent them the certificate, then it was greatly reduced and it was. I know the initial ticket was like $347.

Q: Did you advise a supervisor anything -- that you took a civilian on the trip with you?

A: No sir, I did not. No sir.

Q: Is that relationship with Stafford still ongoing?

A: No sir. Um, I would say in... Again, there was a time period, uh, where, uh, there was no communications between me and her. Uh, she, she had stuff going on in-in-in her life and what have you and-and, uh, we just stopped talking, there was no communications whatsoever. Um, ultimately, one day out the blue, I get a text, I-- um, that was the equivalent of, uh -- hey, how you doing, basically I need some help. I ended up talking to her on the phone. She goes into telling me how she's, uh, back with an ex who is this, uh, mid-level dope boy, white guy that lives in Frayser and every time she tries to leave him, he threatens to kill her and he's her cousin?

He's her mom's boyfriend's son and he's been, he...from-- We had a bunch of conversations and I wanna say she told me that he is the dude that she had told me about in the conversations that had forced himself on her when she was younger and he was, again, selling dope and he supposedly had active federal warrants and she needed help. I said, "Well this is what you can do." I said, "If you, if th-- if this is going on, call the police." She said, "They can't do that, he's gone kill me." I said, "Give me his name and his information." I said, "If he's got active--" She said, "I know the U.S. Marshalls are looking for him." I said, "Well, I know somebody on the U.S. Marshalls Task Force. If th-- if that's true..." I said, "If-If you tell me where you are, I'll contact them, they'll verify the information and boom, they got it." I said, y-you know, "The-- I'll tell them to play you off like you don't know what, you know, they can call you all out your name, make you f-- make the situation look real." I contacted... Oh, why can-- why can I not think of his name. Uh, the male black who was the MPD liaison for the U.S. Marshalls Task Force -- really nice dude. Uh, his wife was a dispatcher at one point. Anyway, I contact him, give him the information. He said, "Yeah, we looking for this dude." I said, "Okay, well, this girl is telling the truth." So I said, "Look, I'ma give you, uh, this information. Sh-- This girl knows where she is..." -- they-they were supposed to-- and they made contact with each other and I went on and-- I-I was, you know, kept doing what I was doing and what have you. Ultimately I think that he -- I don't know if it was that day or a day or two later, um, but they ended up getting, getting him in custody. Um, I know during, before that, before I contacted the guy that I knew on U.S. Marshalls service, she was asking me about, uh, reward and this, that and the other. I said, "Look, if there is a reward for him, I don't know about it," I said, "but i-- I promise you if he's as bad of a dude..." -- he's supposed to been this dude wanted for several drug charges and weapons charges. I said, "If he's as bad a dude as you say, I'm sure if there, if there's a reward, those guys, when you talk to them, you tell them that you are looking for a reward."

Q: How long ago was this when she contacted you about that?

A: I stopped communicating with her...

Q: We're at May, May 31st now, today.

A: Yes sir. Uh, okay. Going in reverse--

Q: When was your last communication with her?

A: Going in reverse order, uh, the last, uh, I, I truly stopped talking to her in No-- in, in November the-- My last actual communication with her where I saw her in person was in January or February of this year. She contacted me. She had a, a safe that had her, some personal stuff in it and the title to the car that she was trying fixed, and she contacted me about coming to get it. And I said, uh, I-I said, "Sure, sure, of course." I said, "Just let me know when you're coming and, uh, and I'll, uh, have it for you," and she came. That's the last time I physically talked to her. But as far as the situation we're talking about Marshalls dude, this-this would have been before me and Sergeant Green went to, went out on-on the trip. Cus again, I-I had not talked to or seen her.

A: So b--uh, she's got this situation, she's like she's basically on the run with this dude, even though she didn't have a warrant, but she's Bonnie -- they Bonnie and Clyde-ing it, basically, from-from what I can gather from the way she explained it.

Q: Let me ask you this question, Lieutenant Kelly.

A: Yes sir.

Q: Uh, did you and her ever take pictures together?

A: Not, uh, together. Uh, I know that sh-- I remember she took a picture of, of me one day when, uh, we were in the vehicle. I know that, uh, I took a, uh, I took her-- again, when we first, uh, uh, start interacting, I took her to a shooting range and-and let her shoot, uh, but--

Q: Let me show you a couple of pictures.

A: Yes sir.

Q: Just verify...

A: Mm-hmm.

Q: That you and her in this picture?

A: Yeah, that's one of the, one of the pictures that, that she took. Yeah, that. Uh, I'm tryna see where. Okay.

Q: That, that was you in that picture?

A: Yes sir.

Q: Now, you said she, um, cleaned your house.

A: Yes sir.

Q: How often she clean your house?

A: She probably cleaned it seven...six, seven times maybe.

Q: Okay. On.. Did you all, um, exchange any explicit text messages?

A: Yes sir.

Q: Did you ever make any threats, promises, coercions related to her criminal charges in exchange for a sexual relationship with her?

A: Never.

Q: Your apartment at the time, what was that address?

A: It's .

Q: Did she have the code to get in?

A: Yes. She's, she's, uh, has a, what I can only categorize as a, she's a v--uh, very good with numbers. She's very f-flighty, but she's, she saw me do the code one time and never, uh, never even...I don't, I never saw her write it down.

Q: Okay. Was she ever at your apartment alone?

A: Ultimately that did happen, uh, once or twice and it's, uh uh, a r-- something that has actually cost me because my credit cards were fraudulently used and believe that she's the one that, uh, did it.

Q: Do you have firearms in your apartment?

A: Yes sir.

Q: Are they secured?

A: Yes.

Q: I'ma show you some pictures of Ms. Kelly.

A: Ms. Stafford.

Q: Yeah, Ms. Stafford, yes -- that's, uh, my bad -- in your apartment.

A: Yes sir.

Q: Is these pictures, these your guns?

A: Yes sir, uh huh.

Q: This your apartment?

A: Yes sir.

Q: Now, how often did she stay overnight?

A: She may have stayed overnight three times, um... Because the way it worked out when I would get her to come clean, um, th-the day would go long, so she, she would stay. Again, it-it had developed into a-a friendship to be, to be quite frank and honest with you, because the-the girl truly didn't have anything going, uh, with herself. And for me to go drive and get her, it was, it-- she was up in Tipton County up past where my parents live and it was a hour one way.

Q: If your guns was secured, how would explain her taking pictures with your guns?

A: Uh, the only thing that I can think is that she would've, uh, gotten my keys. Um, they're in gun boxes and there're locks, so she would've, uh, located the keys and, and, uh, gained entry.

Q: Did you know those pictures existed?

A: I, I wasn't fa-familiar with those, but that was the first time I'd seen 'em.

Q: So to your knowledge, uh, did you know that she was, had possession of your guns and taken pictures with them?

A: Uh, I-I, like I said, that's the first I had seen those, those pictures.

Q: And you said she wasn't working?

A: No, she didn't have a, um, um, a-- what-what you would call "square job," a 9-to-5 job. She ultimately decided that she wanted to become a, a dancer. She felt that that was her best way to quickly get money for her issues. Again, her kids, with school, uh, she, I remember that she could not afford to buy her children Halloween outfits and I actually gave her money to buy the kids Halloween outfits.

Q: Now, when you would give her money, how would you give her the money?

A: It would vary. I would sometimes give her cash, but I also, uh, would Cash App her.

Q: So you helped her... Did you help her get her a job at the, as a stripper at the Gold Club?

A: No, I don't know anybody that works there. She-She went on her own, uh, and-and did whatever it is they have to do, uh--

Q: So during the course of your, you and her relationship, she did get a job at the Gold Club?

A: Yes.

Q: And you're saying you didn't help her?

A: No, I-I, the ex-- the extent of my help would've been I, uh, provided her with money to go, uh, and get outfits, uh, that she needed. She couldn't buy, buy, uh, outfits. But I was taking it context like if I knew somebody there and I went down there and helped her get a job.

Q: Okay. So you, you provided her money to buy clothes, shoes and stuff for her job at the Gold Club?

A: She, she said she needed, she said she needed the A-B-and-C to, to be able to go do this job and I said, "Okay, well look, if that's your decision, if that's what you wanna do, okay fine, cool. Just..." It's not e--

Q: So we-- So I have some text message exchanged between you and her...

A: Yes sir.

Q: ...where, um, you're talking about her being a stripper and th-things that she need to do and everything. Would that be... I want you to take a look at some of this. If you, if you will, take a look at that.

A: Mm-hmm.

Q: Can you read it for me, Lieutenant Kelly?

A: Yes, I see it.

Q: Start right here. Can you read it for me?

A: Oh, you want me to read it out loud?

Q: Yes sir. Yeah, read it out loud for me.

A: "I need you to get serious. Uh, not throwing nothing in your face, but I need you to see, uh, what I'm in-- uh, investing in seeing you do better and-and-and this is just what I Cash App'ed you. You already know what I spend when you're with me and what I put in your hand. You hey got to get your hustle. You need to get a goal, baby. You need to be coming out club with 500 or more every night. That will be enough for you to start catching up. But if you want to live good and be able to save and get your car, apartment, your own stuff, you need to be getting 750 or more and you have to figure it out, and you have to figure it out and get it."

Q: So, you're saying that you didn't encourage her to become a stripper?

A: No, I did not encourage her, but when she made the decision to become that, I encouraged her to do as best she could with it.

Q: Was she resistant to the idea of becoming a stripper at any point?

A: It was her decision. Uh, I-I'm...I can't on any level force anybody to do anything.

Q: Did you try to help her find any other type of employment?

A: Um, yes. Um...

Q: What was that?

A: My son was working, uh, at, uh, Bass Pro, uh, and he had gotten this job, uh, through a contact that I had there and I actually contacted that person about getting Ms. Stafford employed there. And they told, basically they was like, "Just bring her down for the interview and, uh, we-we'll get her..." -- they had immediate housekeeping openings. Matter fact, the same, uh, person, uh, went through, um... I had a meeting set up with Offi-- that was Sergeant, uh, Thurmond Richardson, who has a non-profit who helps people get jobs. And there were multiple people who were able to get jobs through that contact that I had provided, uh, Sergeant Richardson with.

Q: Lieutenant Kelly, is it illegal to buy or sell marijuana in the state of Tennessee?

A: Yes sir.

Q: Did you provide marijuana to Bridgette Stafford?

A: No sir.

Q: Did you give her money to buy marijuana?

A: No sir. I gave her money, but wh-whatever she did with it, whatever, was, was, you know, her deal was. I knew that, uh, that, that she probably, uh, uh, did it because she-she would tell me, uh, what she was doing and, uh, I actually had a conversation with her where I told her that she needed to be doing better with the funds that I was giving her. That's the-- this girl, from what I could tell, uh, had a, not only the marijuana going on, but possibly something else. I never saw it myself, but again, that's why the, one of the first things I did was take her to Judge Dwyer.

Q: So did you ever refer her to someone who she can buy marijuana from?

A: No, I-I...me and her would-- this girl, she was gr-- had a great personality. She, she knew-knew, knows about me and my growing up and I knew of-of-of, I know of people, uh, through police contacts and people that I grew up with -- uh, I'm 48, uh, so I've known for 45-plus years and stuff, um, but I never, uh, directly, uh, referred her and said, "Look, you need to..." uh, um, you know, this, that and the other and stuff. If I did, it was in a joking way because people get robbed out here. I was like, if you gonna A-B-and-C, I said, you need to go to try to, go try to, you know, find, you know, uh, people that-that you're, that you trust -- you gone get robbed.

Q: Ask you something -- do you know a Mark Jones? Who is Mark Jones?

A: Mark Jones is a, uh, gentleman that I grew up with. He is, uh, actually he is, uh, uh, Sandra Green's brother. We, we've been -- uh, that's Major, or Lieutenant Colonel Sandra Green's brother. We all grew up together.

Q: Are you, do you, are you in business or anything with him?

A: In business?

Q: Yeah, with Mark Jones.

A: I hadn't seen Mark... I saw him at his mom's funeral. Uh, actually I didn't see him at the mom's funeral. I ended up calling him because, so busy, I couldn't get to the funeral. I haven't seen Mark in a while, um... But no, I'm not in business with, with Mark. Uh, last I heard, Mark was, uh, working at Williams-Sonoma and coaching football, pee-wee football.

Q: Bring your attention to this -- another text message exchange between you and Bridgette. Can you read that, Lieutenant Kelly?

A: Mm-hmm, alright. Okay.

Q: Could you read it, Lieutenant Kelly?

A: "Call-- Call my guy Mark at [redacted] I'm gonna tell him you gone call. You have to stop sharing your weed, mama. Uh, uh, what I get for you, I get so you can enjoy it. Uh, but call him. I will send, uh, him-- I will send him but number so he will know it and send me some pics in your outfit. Don't forget to send me a few pics."

Q: What was, what were you referring to in that, Lieutenant Kelly.

A: That, that-that, the-- if I can again re-refer back to it and stuff.

Q: Okay.

A: The... When, when I was telling her to call Mark a-again, uh, it was, uh, it was not for her to go and-and purchase any weed. The-The girl that-- it's a couple of different conversations going on at, uh, at the same time and I'm addressing a couple of different things. Uh, but I'm not in business with-with Mark and even though the text reads as such, it is totally taken out, out of context. Uh, this "what I get for you" is ref-- is in reference to, to her, the money that I give her for her outfits, which is why I asked her to send me a picture of her in her outfits.

Q: Okay. Other than, um, when you was developing Bridgette Stafford as a suspect in the Robert Glidden murder, other than that, did-- have you ever ran her on Watson or anything for any reason?

A: On Watson?

Q: Mm-hmm.

A: Uh... I don't think that I have. Um, I know I did some, uh, the research and after the warrant, but after that, if I did, it was, uh, uh, to...doing additional research, just doing background stuff in regards to the case.

Q: On December 12, 2018, you ran her on Watson, on your Watson account.

A: Okay.

Q: Um...I'ma show you another text message.

A: Yeah. I-I know what you're in reference to. She, uh--

Q: She said, um... Just read that starting with what she said.

A: You want me to start with, uh...

Q: What she said about...

A: "A warrant for what?" And I, I typed, uh, there's a typing -- "IDK." Uh, and then she says, "Give me..."--

Q: Oh, no no.

A: Oh, oh okay.

Q: Yeah. Yeah.

A: Yeah.

A: "I just got a call to some-something that I ha-- I just got a call today that I have a warrant, Haywood County."

Q: That's her?

A: Yes, this is, that is her. "Fuck this shit. See how much you care. See how much you care."

Q: And what did you reply?

A: Uh, I replied, "A warrant for what?" She replied, "IDK." I said, "Give me your DOB." "3/20/90." I said, "What's your SSN or your DL number?" Uh, what-what sh-- what she's referencing is she, uh, I actually ended up talking to her on the phone and she said that she had been stopped by the Tipton County, uh, Sheriff's Department. Again, this was during the time when I really minimal communications with her. She said she had been stopped and they advised her that she had a warrant. She asked me to, to, to check it and, uh, uh, I s-- I said, uh, I, I asked her for the information or what have you. I just looked in WASP because I knew that at some point, um, um, she had been arrested in Tipton County on a Shoplifting charge. I said, "Well, maybe Tipton County's getting something confused," so I looked to see if something was in, in WASP. Um, and ultimately I told her that what she needed to do-- She wanted me to call and I told her, "Ultimately, what you need to do is as simple as either go online and do it." And I said, "If you can't do that, call them and they will tell you."

Q: Now you're saying that you did check her in Watson?

A: No, no. Uh, what I'm saying is I-I, what I did was I, I pulled up her, her DOB and stuff. I didn't check it under the pretense of, of uh...

Q: But what I'm saying on December the 12th at 11:08, 11:09, 11:20, 21, you ran her in your Watson account.

A: Uh, I did.

Q: Yes.

A: Well, if-if I did again, if-if that's in conjunction with-- the thing, I was just checking to see-- I know that warrants from sh-- from Haywood County or Tipton County, which would not show up in the thing. I was just checking to see if they were, if-if-if she had warrants here or not.

Q: So it wasn't in relation to the Accessory charge, it wasn't--
A: Yes, yes.

Q: So--
A: I thought this something had, I thought that maybe she missed a court date and that-that-that the prosecutors or something had-had, uh, gone and, and reissued or tryna get it back in.

Q: But the warrant, was this out of Haywood County?
A: What she was saying was that warrant was out of Haywood County. Again, I know that I can't check in Watson for anything in Haywood County. I was checking to see if, if something had happened in Shelby County.

Q: But you know, far as with the Accessory charge, it would have to be in Shelby County, not Haywood County. So if she told you Haywood County, you really wouldn't have a reason to check your Watson to see if Shelby County issued anything.

A: Well, a-again the-the-the thought process at the time was she's getting stopped in Tipton County and Tipton County is telling her that she has a warrant in Haywood County. I'm aware that she has a shoplifting mis-- she got a Misdemeanor citation in Tipton County for shoplifting. So I'm like-- well, I'm thinking to myself maybe they're getting that confused. And then also, thinking-- overthinking the situation, I'm like, well maybe something has, sh-she done caught another charge that she hadn't told me about because she caught the Shoplifting charge in-in Tipton County during the course of me interacting with her. So I'm thinking, uh, that, that, uh, I'm just gonna check to see, maybe they have something confused. And ultimately what I ended up telling her was that she needs to call Haywood County. "If they keep telling you..." -- cus I wanna say she got stopped, uh, or had an interaction up there two different times. And the-- and I had told her before, "If you think you have a warrant, call to Haywood County. They'll tell you." At least in Shelby County, I know that they will. And if you go back and if you read her texts, if you read the context of her, her, her text, she said, "See how much you..." -- she sends the information and says, "See how much you care." That was her, because I had not been communicating with her.

Q: Okay.
A: Uh...her way of I guess getting my attention and-and putting, laying the guilt trip on me to uh s-- uh, to see if she truly did have a warrant.

Q: Let's go back to this Alabama trip.
A: Yes sir.

Q: Uh, what did she do while you and Sergeant Green was conducting your police business?
A: Uh, she stayed, uh, at the room.

Q: Okay. You and her -- how many rooms did y'all have?

A: There were, there were two rooms -- Sergeant Green had a room and then, uh, me and her, uh, had a room with, uh, double beds.

Q: Did you get a stipend, uh, from the City or did you, uh, submit any receipts from, from, uh, the trip to get reimbursed for anything?

A: I believe I did, yes sir.

Q: Did you pay for her meals with any...

A: Negative. Negative. If you, matter fact, if you-- if I remember that trip, the-the trip, it wasn't even to the, to the max or to the limit of what it could've been.

Q: Do you have a Facebook account, Lieutenant Kelly?

A: Yes sir.

Q: What's your, uh, username?

A: Uh, the one that I'm sure that you're probably referring to is the, the fake Facebook account that I, uh, created, uh, as part of an investigator using it as an investigative tool. Uh, it's T-R-A-N-uh-M-A-R-L-O-N.

Q: Okay, when you and, um, Bridgette Stafford stayed in the room together on the trip, it was, how many days did y'all stay?

A: This-- uh, I'm I remember correctly, it was one -- we drove down...we drove down...uh, did the...drove down... Okay, in this one I think we drove down, s-spent the night -- cus we left from Memphis and got down to Alabama -- we spent the night, did the interview the next day--

Q: Sorry, Lieutenant. I have your travel...

A: Thank you.

Q: ...paperwork right there.

A: I appreciate that. So this would've been, uh...

Q: What day y'all went down?

A: Uh...bruh, my eye-- my eyesight is terrible. 8/28. Okay, 8/28 and came back 8/29.

Q: Okay. What vehicle did y'all drive?

A: It was a City of Memphis, uh...it was a '14 Dodge Durango.

Q: And you said you, she went down on the trip, you didn't receive any permission. Did you let anybody know when you got back that a civilian had went on the trip?

A: No sir, I did not, sir.

Q: Now, you stayed overnight. Um, so you're saying there no type of sexual relationship between you guys?

A: We talk -- I talk a good game cus that's about all I can do. My, my level of satisfaction sexually, uh, is, uh...uh, if we were to get super personal, I don't know how personal you wanna, wanna get in regards to the matter except. Um, um... I don't, I don't...

EB

Q: I guess what I'm, what I'm getting at is, you said y'all did share sexual explicit pictures and text messages.

A: Yes sir.

Q: Have you ever sent her text message of yourself nude?

A: Yes sir.

Q: Has she ever sent text messages, uh, pictures of herself nude?

A: Yes sir.

Q: But you're saying that you're, you guys in person never had any type of physical contact?

A: That-- uh, no, I-I wouldn't go so far as to say that, no sir.

Q: So..

A: No sir. No sir, I would go so far to say that, no.

Q: Can you explain what kind of physical contact you guys shared?

A: Uh, I don't, I don't know how appropriate that would...

Q: I think it-- I think we, at this point we need be, uh, be very clear on what kind of physical contact y'all shared.

A: Um... Uh, I would go so far as to, to say that, that, uh... I don't know. I don't know how to.

Q: Just say it.

A: Um... If I could take a moment, um... That, th-there were, there was, uh... Hmm. I-I, um, I guess I'm kind of embarrassed to. Yeah, can we st-- can we step out for a moment?

Q: Yeah. Pause it. Um...

Q: You and Essica want to step out, or...?

A: Yes sir, uh huh.

Q: Do you wanna pause it?

A: Yeah.

Q: Go ahead, eh...

Q: Push stop, or...?

[End of Lt. Kelly's Statement Part 1]

This is the continuation of the interview of Lieutenant Eric Kelly. Today's date: May 31, 2019.
Time: 6:55.

Q: Continue.

A: Uh, the-- I think your question was th-- was there any kind of sexual contact between me and her and, uh, th-that would be, uh, there, there was, uh, oral contact, uh, that I definitely would, uh, re-remember, um...

Q: Oral contact between both of you, you guys?

A: Um...

Q: I know that to-- don't sound too explicit, but you doing her or she doing you or both?

A: Uh, d-d-- me doing her.

Q: How often did this take place?

A: Over the course of the relationship, I would say probably twice.

Q: Uh, I'm gonna re-- probably gonna revisit a couple of things just to make sure that I we know, uh... When you had her cleaning your apartment, uh, occasionally spending the night, uh, occasionally having this contact, her case, uh, in which you were the primary investigator, was still active at that time?

A: Yes sir. Yes sir, but it, uh, the-the-- she had, uh, been in contact with, uh, the prosecutors and from what, uh, what explained, what she explained to me was that they basically told her, uh, that she would be used as a witness in the particular case as long as, uh, she was telling the truth, uh, from what the statement that she had given. And they told her that, uh, that ultimately, uh, the, the-the, uh, the case involving, uh, the homicide would, uh, get dismissed and, uh... And again, th-that's stuff that prosecutors have power to do, uh, not me. Um, the, uh-- Oh, I know what she was at court for. When she had gotten arrested for-- and got taken into custody on the warrant, there were, uh, there was marijuana and something else in the car and I think that's what she was ultimately in court for.

Q: Okay. But her, as... Uh, she, and she may have had some other charges, but at, at the time, uh, the Glidden case that she was still involved in was still active and she was still is--

A: It is, it's still-- it had--

Q: It still is, correct?

A: Yes sir. Yes sir.

Q: Yeah, okay. Um, so then it would've been active when you, when you went to Alabama? Uh... We've been in here a minute, so I'm just going back over these real quick. When... When she asked you about the, about the warrant, uh, you noted that she could've called, um, to find out if she had a warrant or not.

A: Mm-hmm.

Q: Because that's-- we know that. Why was it necessary for you run her through NCIC to find out that same information?

A: I don't remember running her through NCIC.

Q: That's where Watson gets its information, right?

A: Uh, I thought Watson's just a l-- uh, local database. Uh, it was not my intention to, to... I thought you-- to run somebody through NCIC, you had to call the dispatchers and have that done or you had to, uh, go into, uh, th-the actual database to, to do that. Um, and, and are you, y'all saying Wat-Watson's?

Q: Yes, y-yes, your, uh, your Watson audit history shows these searches and Watson will automatically search the NCIC database.

A: I-I... Okay, the-- so yes, that-that does. But I, if I checked, if I ran that a-again, uh, and put it in the thing, she had an active warrant. I don't remember exactly the timeframe when she had it. Uh, it would've been after, uh, December because I remember mentioning to her, uh, because I-I, I do it with several of, of people involved with my cases.

Q: When you say "after December," you mean...

A: It would've been--

Q: ...after the whole month of December?

A: Yes, because this, this--

Q: Well that wouldn't be the one we talking about. We're talking about when you ran her December the 12th. 2018.

A: Yes sir.

Q: Yeah. That's when you, you ran her December 12, 2018 at 11:08 PM, 11:09, 11:20, 11:21 PM.

A: If that was, a-again, I don't know why it would even have been run that many times. Um, but let me ask you this -- the, the text message that you showed where she mentions the Haywood County thing, that was, that was...way before, uh...

Q: Well, that's why we're asking the questions--

A: That was way before that-- I have-- I wasn't even talking to her cus-- you-- Tell me the date again, December the what?

Q: December the 12th.

A: Okay, December the 12th was...

Q: 2018.

A: ...right close to when my daughter was getting ready to graduate from college. I had not been talking to Ms. Stafford at least since... I know that I had, had drifted away and cut communications with her November, uh, and that's when I think, where I think those messages came from. Cus I never-- If I ran that on December the 12th, that was me personally, there was no relationship. I wasn't even talking to her because I-- We can go back. I think my daughter--

Q: So it, so it would be personal?

A: Check. Correct. It was not in conjunction with the communication with her.

Q: Okay. So it would be personal.

A: It, it would've been because she, there, there ultimately was one -- again, my daughter graduated from college, and while we were gone, um, um, when I came back -- and I wanna say it was like, it was, it was the first part of December, uh, that, uh, I noticed that there were three charges on my account. So I was, uh, probably-- if I ran it like that, I was probably tryna see-- I assumed it was her, but again, there was no concrete proof. And the reason I assumed is because where the charges were and what they were for.

Q: What, they got-- what you say had got stolen again?

A: My, my debit card?

Q: Your debit card?

A: Uh, it-it didn't get, my debit card didn't get stolen. What happened was when I, when I came back from, uh, my daughter's graduation, I checked my bank account, um, because I had spent out on-on her, uh, up there and was gonna give her some more money. Uh, when I checked it, it didn't have the mou-- amount that I had calculated in my mind that it should have. Uh, so I started looking back, uh, at the charges and noted that there were three, if I remember, three or four charges and, um, that I had not made. Uh, I called Regions Bank to verify that this was, had been done and they asked me if I still had my card. I was like, "Yeah, I got it right here with me." Uh, they said, uh...they said, uh, "Well, it looks like somebody paid a light bill, somebody ordered pizza, somebody tried to order some books or something, and they used the card." And I said, "Well, ma'am, I-I didn't make these charges." And-And the, the light bill was attempted to be paid in Tipton County to a power company in Tipton County. One of the last-last conversations that I had with her before I went on the trip, uh, she went and texted me -- I had stopped communicating with her -- was that she was sitting in the dark. I actually sent her money on one occasion, Cash App, for her to pay it, and two days later, she was like, "Oh, I'm..." she was like, "I'm in the dark." And I was like, you know, I didn't even respond.

Q: During the, uh, how much total did you send her?

A: Thousands. Thousands. That's why I, I, uh, not to minimize--

Q: When you say "thousands," like two, three?

A: Not to minimize, about, uh, over the course of just money that I can, uh, verify -- and, and I don't know how Cash App, what, what kind of records they keep, but I can show you where... It, it wasn't a relationship where we're gonna have sex for me to keep you from going to jail. No, it wasn't, that wasn't it. I truly took invested interest in this, uh, particular person, uh, cus we had connected, um, on a particular level and I-I, uh, um, did what I did, uh, with-with-- as far as funds.

Q: Let me ask you this. Um... This about your citations you got in Alabama.

A: Mm-hmm.

Q: When you got back, did you advise your supervisor that you had got a citation?

A: Yes, I-- yeah-- Not, not formally, not writing it down or this, that and the other and stuff, but I, I, uh, I...but I'm, I'm not here to get anybody else in any kind of trouble, so it-it wasn't any kind of formal notification. Uh, it was, was said in a joking manner, uh, but it w-w-- it was...

Matter fact, uh, what I quoted, uh, myself as saying was, I wasn't too, uh, I was upset that the trooper had written it and, uh, had kept me on the side of the rode for 32 minutes and got chastised by him for 'being tired of the Memphis dudes coming through, speeding like they ain't got no damn sense.' And that when I had called and found out how much the ticket, I was taken aback and, um, uh, I said that I, that uh, I would get it, uh, would make it back just through working.

Q: And you said you told that to, informally to someone?

A: Yes, to someone, yes.

Q: Was it a supervisor? That you told this to?

A: I-I'm not here to get anybody else in any, any kind of--

Q: Well I'm just aksing a question and you, you said for--

A: I understand, sir.

Q: You said you--

A: I, I spoke with, I spoke with someone, yes sir.

Q: Yeah, you said you, um... Who, who was that?

A: I can't remember right now, sir. I, but I, uh, again, I'm not here to try to get anybody else in any kind of mess, sir.

Q: Okay, getting back to your relationship with Bridgette Stafford.

A: Yes sir.

Q: Can you ex-- just explain briefly, um... You arrested her, uh, for Accessory after the fact to wit First Degree Murder, um, of the, in the murder of Robert Glidden.

A: Yes sir.

Q: Gonna let you...

A: The--

Q: ...see the affidavit...

A: Yes sir.

Q: ...that you wrote.

A: Mm-hmm.

Q: Uh, he was dumped...

A: Yes sir, he was.

Q: ...um, inside a dumpster. They found--

A: Yes sir.

Q: He was in a trunk. They robbed him, beat him.

A: Yes sir.

Q: You, um, charged her, interrogated her, interviewed her. You started a relationship with her. Um...can you explain what, what that, effect may have on her case and...the defendants, uh, that got arrested with her?

A: The, the-- well, to, to go back to you, to your, the initial way that you presented it -- yes, it is an Accessory after the fact to wit First Degree Murder, which is in-in the homicide world and the prosecutor's world, uh, that is, uh, the equivalent of a, of...nobody goes to jail for Accessory after the fact in First Degree Murder, uh, e-except for those people-- The only people that the, the way that's it's treated and handled around the prosecutor's office in my experience has been that, uh, as long as, uh, depending on the circumstances, they typically drop that. I've charged multiple people with that charge and everybody that I've charged with it, the charges are dropped. Um, again, the warrant that was issued on Ms. Stafford was an extremely thin PC warrant that I articulated well enough to be able to get it. I mean, if we gone-- if I'ma keep it very factual with you, the-- if, uh...if I'd've taken this to five judicial commissioners, uh, ten judicial commissioners, uh, eight of 'em probably would've said no and would've probably wanted some, some more factual stuff because, uh--

Q: But you didn't.

A: Sir?

Q: But you didn't. How many, how many people did you present this Affidavit to?

A: I think I took it to a judicial commission, uh, but-but my-my-my point, w-what I'm getting at in regards to it is that, uh, Mrs. Stafford -- I knew based off of what the w-witness statements that I had that Mrs. Stafford's possible involvement would've been a witness where she saw what the other true suspects who had laid hands on it and committed the act had done. She was not present when it occurred, but her involvement would've been having come into possession of, uh, Mr. Glidden's property and gone and have u-- uh, possibly used it. And she, uh, again, if you read this and if you knew the complete story, Mr. Stafford -- I mean, Mr. uh Glidden's credit cards had been taken and Ms. uh Stafford, along with four other people -- uh, her, a male Black, a male White, and another female -- ended up at a cell phone store and everybody except Ms. Stafford went into this store and, and stuff was bought.

Q: So, so you developed a sexual relationship with a suspect in a murder investigation. How do you think that...?

A: It is, uh, it is admittedly, uh, on the surface, uh, a-- It is admittedly on the surface, uh, can-can be perceived to be, uh, uh, negative, but again, the-- by the time that, uh, the r-- the time, w-what we will call a relationship, uh, began, it had been made clear that she was going to be a witness in regards to the case.

Q: And she was gonna be a witness against the codefendants. That was y-- Is that what you're saying? The codefendants?

A: She-- the-- uh, she had been told by the prosecutors--

Q: Okay, so she'd be a witness against the codefendants.

A: Mm-hmm.

Q: Now you actually started the sexual relationship with her.

A: The-The, the-the sexual relationship did not begin u-uh, the actual--

Q: The case is still ongoing?

A: Yes sir.

Q: Um... Lieutenant Kelly, is there anything else you would like to add that may aid us in this investigation?

A: No sir.

Q: Show this statement ending at 7:11.

Q: Please state your name and IBM for the record.

A: Sheila Marie Green, 0225.

Q: Are you aware this statement is being recorded?

A: Yes.

Q: Have you read and did you understand the Garrity Advisory Form?

A: Yes.

Q: Have you dated and signed the form?

A: Yes.

Q: Do you understand that a refusal to answer questions in this investigation constitutes a violation of policies and procedures?

Q: Do you understand that you are a witness; if the facts determine that you are in violation of policies, procedures or the directives then appropriate action will be taken?

A: Yes.

Q: Do you wish to have an advisor present?

A: No.

Q: Sergeant Green, did you go an authorized work-related trip to Montgomery, Alabama on August 28th with Lieutenant Eric Kelly?

A: Yes.

Q: What was the purpose of the trip?

A: To interview a suspect for a murder.

Q: How did you travel? How did you all travel there?

A: Uh, we drove.

Q: What vehicle did you, did you drive?

A: I do not know what type of vehicle it was; it doesn't show it on here. Oh, 2014 Dodge Durango according to this paperwork.

Q: Was it a City vehicle?

A: Uh, according to this paperwork, yes.

Q: Well, what I'm asking, you didn't rent a car, did you?

A: No, we didn't rent a car, no.

Q: Was it, was it taken out of the Homicide fleet?

A: I don't know what fleet it was taken out of, I'm sorry.

Q: Okay. But it was a City vehicle?

A: Yes.

Q: Okay. Besides Lieutenant Kelly, did anyone else go on the trip?

A: I don't know what type of... Who do you mean? Do you mean--

Q: It was you... Who-Who went on the trip?

A: Uh, it was he and I and...it seems like I don't remember. It was another person, but I don't know who the person is or was.

Q: Who was that person?

A: I don't know.

Q: W-- I mean, who was the person with?

A: Uh, they weren't with me, so...must've been with him.

Q: Can you describe the person?

A: No, I can't. I don't, I don't remember what, who the person was. I... I don't know who she was.

Q: It was a, it was a female?

A: Uh, as far as I know, she-- it was a female. But I never...

Q: Was she, uh--

A: I could not tell if she was a male or a female -- I don't know.

Q: How long was it, how long did it take you all to travel from Memphis to Montgomery?

A: I don't know. Would it say that on here? Would it say that on this paperwork?

Q: No.

A: I, I don't know.

Q: I'm not sure.

A: I slept a lot while we were riding, so I don't know how long it took.

Q: Who drove?

A: Eric.

Q: Okay.

A: Lieutenant--

Q: So where'd y'all leave from when y'all set off?

A: Um... He picked, he picked me up and we left. He picked me up from my house.

Q: So it was another person already in the vehicle?

A: Uh, yes.

Q: And that-- it was a female?

A: I don't know if it was a female or a male, but...it was a person.

Q: And you, where did you sit?

A: I was a front passenger.

Q: So a person w-- He picked you up at your house, it was a person in the back seat?

A: Yes.

Q: You don't know whether that was a female or a male?

A: Well, I was not able to-- I couldn't tell. I mean, it's...

Q: Okay. Was this, did this-- How long did this trip seem like it took to Montgomery? Two hours?

A: Um... I really don't know. I-I, I'ma be, I'ma be honest with you, I really wasn't feeling good and so I slept some of the way, but...

Q: Once y'all made it to, uh, Montgomery, where did y'all stay?

A: I believe it was at Holiday Inn, Holiday Inn Express.

Q: What was the room assignment a far as...?

A: Uh, I had my room and he had his room.

Q: And when y'all made it to Holiday Inn, um...when he got out the car, did you get out the car at the same time or around about same time?

A: I would assume we got out around the same time. I-I don't remember the order of if I got out first or he got out first.

Q: Okay. So during that period of time, you never, you can't tell me how that person looked that was with you all? That female?

A: Female or male or transgender or whoever-- I, I don't know, I don't know what--

Q: Was she Black, White? Or was the person Black or White?

A: Well, she was light-complected. Um, now Eric could pass for White and he's Black, so I don't know.

Q: Did he introduce you?

A: Um, there was very little communication between that person and me because I don't know the person, didn't know the person, never met the person before.

Q: Was Lieutenant Kelly communicating with her?

A: Um, seem like I can remember him, um, saying something like consoling or something. I don't know, sh-she could've been a family member, I don't know.

Q: You had never seen this person before?

A: No.

Q: In your hotel, uh, room, how many beds did you have?

A: You know, I really don't remember how many beds were in that room. I know I slept by myself.

Q: And did you see the person go in the room with Lieutenant Kelly?

A: I don't recall seeing that person, uh, that you're talking about go in the room with him.

Q: At any point during the trip, were you all involved in a traffic stop?

A: I think I-- Yeah, I think he was pulled over. Like I can remember him being pulled over.

Q: You remember, um... So when... He was driving at that time too?

A: Yes. He always drove. I didn't drive.

Q: Okay. Did he get a citation?

A: I don't know if he got a citation or a warning, I don't know.

Q: Was paper exchanged between the... was it a trooper or a police officer?

A: I don't know if he was a police or a trooper. I don't know, he was just a, he was an officer.

Q: Okay. But you don't know wa-was any paper exchanged between the two?

A: Uh, that I can recall, it was some paper.

Q: It was some paper exchanged?

A: Mm-hmm, but I don't know if it was a--

Q: Did Lieutenant Kelly sign something?

A: I don't remember him signing anything, but I do know there was a, a paper transaction, but I don't know if it was a courtesy or...a citation or...a traffic violation.

Q: And you said on this trip, uh, you-- there was little communication between, uh, Lieutenant Kelly and the person?

A: Between me and the person. Now I don't know how much he and that person talked, um... I don't know, I don't. I don't know much he communicated with that person.

Q: Did another female go on the trip also?

A: I don't recall another female going.

Q: So...you, Lieutenant Kelly, and another person who you don't know whether was male or female or transgender...?

A: No, no...

Q: And you don't--

A: I don't know... I-I never went under the clothing of this...

Q: Well did--

A: ...individual, so--

Q: What they appear to be?

A: Well, I myself-- I'm a lesbian, okay? And a lot of my friends are transgender.

Q: Okay.

A: And the boys look like girls, but they're really boys; and the girls, they look like boys and they really are girls. So, therein lies what I'm trying to explain to you. I don't, um--

Q: But what did this person look like?

A: I-I don't really recall.

Q: You being a police officer --

A: I know.

Q: How long you been a police officer?

A: I-- you know, I've been a police officer for a long time, but how long have you been a police officer? I know you don't remember the first person you ever wrote a ticket to or arrested or anything like that.

Q: But that's not what I'm asking. I'm asking on a trip from August 28th of last year, not too long ago.

A: I know... I-I, I do-- you know... I'm a busy person, you know, I do a lot of stuff and deal with a lot of different people...

Q: But you...

A: ...in all facets of life.

Q: ...went on this trip August 28th and Lieutenant Kelly came and picked you up. Was another person in the vehicle? You, you don't...?

A: I don't remember the person.

Q: You don't remember who, what--

A: Cus I never seen that person.

Q: But you can't tell me whether-- if this person appeared to be a male or female, White or Black? Isn't that our job to recall information as a police officer?

A: Well, when it is pertinent I guess, but I mean I just...

Q: You don't think driving down outta town to Alabama...?

A: I just looked at that person. I-- I'm telling you--

Q: Over 200 miles, someone in the car -- you don't think that'd be pertinent to know who was that, else was in the car?

A: I-- I just, I never paid much attention. I mean, it was nobody that I, I guess, found attractive, so I didn't look at the person, so.

Q: So by you saying "find attractive" -- you told me earlier that you identified lesbian...

A: Mm-hmm.

Q: ...so that person -- you attracted to females, right? So would that mean--

A: Yeah, but I've got kids, too, so... I don't have a problem with men at all, so.

Q: Okay.

A: I just like, you know, I don't look at a person's gender in my selection.

Q: I don't...I don't think it's gonna be worth it.

Q: Sergeant Green, if we, um... I wanna, um, allow you to think about your answers that you gave me.

A: Mm-hmm.

54

Q: Do you wanna, um, think about those answers and maybe, uh, answer the questions differently if I ask you did anyone else go on the trip with you to Alabama besides you, Lieutenant Kelly and this other person?

A: That individual? Yeah.

Q: Mm-hmm.

A: No one else was, uh, the vehicle but us three.

Q: Just three people?

A: Mm-hmm.

Q: And that third person besides you and Lieutenant Kelly, you don't know whether they was male or female, white or black? Were they a police, were they a policeman?

A: That... I don't know. I don't believe they were a police officer. I don't believe that, no.

Q: Okay. Now did, um--

A: Uh, then we would've had something to talk about.

Q: Okay. Did you all get permission from anyone else beside you and Lieutenant Kelly to go on the trip?

A: I personally never asked for permission to bring anyone cus I had no intention on bringing anyone, so I never even asked.

Q: Okay.

A: Now as for what he did, I don't know.

Q: So that person that was on the trip was his person that came with him?

A: It's not anyone that came with me.

Q: Okay. Alright.

Q: Prior to this trip, had you traveled for the City before?

A: Let's see, I went to Mexico -- I'm sure you all went also...

Q: I didn't.

A: To Socorro?

Q: I did not.

A: Bomb training?

Q: I've heard about it.

A: Um...I've had some trips-- I don't remember, but...

Q: Just a few trips? So you...

A: Yeah. Went out of town, picked up-- I mean, get in, like, I've been to, what? Mississippi.

Q: Okay. So then you're familiar... You're aware that we're not supposed to have unauthorized civilians in our cars, right?

A: Well, um...I, I never brought anyone with me.

Q: No, I'm not asking if you did. I'm just asking if you're aware that we're not supposed to.

A: Um... Well, I-I don't think that's a...a situation I've, uh... I-It's not common, you know, it's not unusual to have a citizen in your vehicle and it's a City vehicle. That's not unusual.

Q: It's against--

A: I mean, it happens all the time, you know. It happens all the time.

Q: It does?

A: It does. It happens all the time. And I mean... you'd have to get rid of the whole department. It's, it's not unusual, you know?

Q: Okay, alright. So then... So it wasn't unusual to you to have a civilian that you didn't know sitting in the seat behind you on a couple-hour trip? You didn't think it was important to find out who that was or anything like that? Pay attention to what they looked like or anything?

A: Well, like I said, you know, I really wasn't feeling good that day. I slept a lot. Um...I could only think that it was someone that was related to him. Um, I don't think he would bring someone that he didn't trust to be around me or vice versa. Um...I don't feel like, um, Lieutenant Kelly would do anything that would endanger me.

Q: Okay, yeah, you didn't feel threatened or anything like that.

A: No.

Q: Okay.

Q: Was this person tall, short?

A: Well, the person was not taller than me. I know that much.

Q: So it's a, it's a light-skinned person...that's not taller than you. Was she... What was her build? Was she, was she big, little, small?

A: I don't remember all of that, no. All of that is very vague to me. Yeah.

Q: When-- As part of, uh, going on a trip and you said in-investigating, where did that person stay? Did that person go with you all once, once y'all made it there and did your all investigation?

A: Nobody went anywhere with me. What do you mean in terms of?

Q: When y'all went to... Where'd y'all go to do, to uh do the investigation?

A: We went to the jail.

Q: Okay.

A: Montgomery.

Q: So who went to the jail?

A: Me and Eric.

Q: You all two, you two was the only one in the car?

A: Mm-hmm.

Q: So that person stayed behind?

A: They weren't with us.

Q: They weren't with-- okay. Did y'all have dinner?

A: We did eat.

Q: All three of y'all?

A: Uh, there was an individual there, yeah. There was an individual there.

Q: So the individu--

A: Yeah.

Q: The individual that was at dinner with you all.

A: Yeah.

Q: And you, like I said, you couldn't tell me whether she was White or Black--

A: I, you know what? I-I just didn't pay no attention to that.

Q: Just didn't pay no attention?

A: I just, I didn't pay no attention to that person, just--

Q: But you-- She could, she could pass for White, though?

A: Well...

Q: You said Lieutenant Kelly could pass for White, so she was--

A: Eric could pass for White.

Q: So she was in his, um, tone?

A: Yeah, he-- but he could pass for Black too, so.

Q: Okay.

A: You know, they're a different shades of--

Q: She have blonde hair or black hair?

A: I don't recall.

Q: Brown-haired or red-haired?

A: I don't recall.

Q: Okay.

A: I'm sorry. I wish I could be more help, but I mean, I just don't remember.

Q: Yeah.

A: I mean, it just-- and I was taking medication and, I mean, and...

Q: Okay.

A: I just don't remember. I just, I just know we were down there to get a murderer and we did get him and...I was happy.

Q: Okay.

A: Cus it was my case.

Q: That's cool.

Q: Okay.

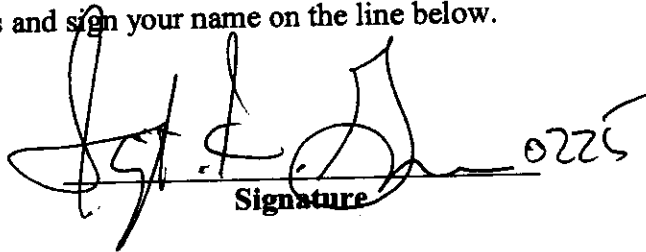

Q: I got nothing.

Q: Sergeant Green, is there anything else you would like to add that may aid us in this investigation?

A: Uh... no, I can't think of anything that could help.

Q: Show this statement ending at 2:15.

I will ask you to read the preceding pages of this typewritten statement and if you find the same to be true and correct as a statement given by you, I ask you to initial the bottom of the preceding pages and sign your name on the line below.

Follow-up interview of Sgt. Sheila Green:

Q: Please state your name and IBM for the record?

A: Shelia Marie Green, 0225.

Q: Are you aware that this statement is being recorded?

A: Yes

Q: Have you read and did you understand the Garrity Advisory Form?

A: Yes

Q: Have you dated and signed the form?

A: Yes

Q: Do you understand that a refusal to answer questions in this investigation constitutes a violation of Policy and Procedures?

A: Yes

Q: Will you now participate in the interview by the Inspectional Services Bureau of this department?

A: Yes

Q: Do you understand that you a witness, but if the facts determine that you are in violation of policy, procedures, or directives, then appropriate action will be taken?

A: Yes

Sh

Q: Do you wish to have an advisor present?

A: Yes.

Q: Advisor, state your name and IBM.

A: Michael R. Williams, IBM 5702.

Q: Sgt. Green, did you go on an authorized work related trip to Montgomery, Alabama, on August 28, 2018 with Lt. Eric Kelly?

A: Yes.

Q: What was the purpose of this trip?

A: To interview a murder suspect.

Q: How did you travel there?

A: Uh in a 2014 Dodge Durango.

Q: Is that a rental vehicle?

A: Uh no it's a city vehicle.

Q: Who did the driving?

A: Uh Eric Kelly.

Q: He did all of the driving?

A: Yes.

Q: Do you know how many miles from Memphis to Montgomery, Alabama? Or how, how many hours it took y'all to get there?

A: I don't know exactly how many miles or how many hours. I know it as more than one hour I know that much I will say.

Q: About a 4 or 5 hour trip?

A: Uh I can only assume. I don't know exactly how long it took.

Q: Besides Lt. Kelly, did anyone else go on the trip?

A: Yes.

Q: Who else went on the trip?

A: Uh it was a female.

Q: Female black, white?

A: She was a fair complexed female. Um she could have been black, white or mulatto I don't know, I don't know exactly her race but she was fair complexed.

Q: Was she a police officer?

A: That I know of no.

SG

Q: Did Lt. Kelly introduce you to her?

A: He did introduce her to me.

Q: What was her name?

A: I don't remember what her name was.

Q: How did he introduce, could you explain how he introduced you to her?

A: He just said this is whoever the person's name was and that was pretty much it.

Q: Have you ever seen this female before?

A: No.

Q: Were they in a relationship?

A: I don't know. I don't know what the extent of it was.

Q: Did this person, did you all advise, did y'all get permission for this person to go on the trip?

A: I never got permission to bring anyone um so I don't know if he did or not.

Q: When you got, when y'all got back did you let anybody know that a civilian went on the trip?

A: Um I didn't talk to anyone outside of him about it.

Q: What did you say, you didn't?

A: I didn't, I didn't, I didn't talk to any personnel or anything about that at all. I never brought it up.

Q: Where did you stay in Alabama?

A: Uh we stayed at the Holiday Inn Express.

Q: How was the room arrangement?

A: We had separate rooms. I had my own room and he had his own room.

Q: Did that person, where, where did that person stay?

A: Um she may have stayed with him. Um I, I didn't notice um if she was in a different room or anything like that.

Q: So how many people was in the car going to Alabama?

A: Three.

Q: So no one went with you?

A: No. No.

Q: Did you get a stipend for the trip?

A: Uh, um we paid for, I know I paid for mines and then turned in the receipt.

Q: To get reimbursed?

A: Yes. Um-hmm.

Q: On one of your receipts. Did you ever pay for Sgt. Kelly's meal or anything while you were there or did he pay for his own?

A: We all, we paid for our own food.

Q: Ok. Ok. On one of your receipts that you turned in to get reimbursed, it was two guest, two guest meals was purchased. Who was the other guest?

A: Uh well I had ordered more than one item or more than one entrée. But I didn't order anything for anybody else. I just ordered more than one entrée.

Q: So you saying...

A: I like took one back to the room.

Q: But that was one, one person you paid for one person.

A: Yeah. Like the eggplant...

Q: So why would they put, two guest means two different people?

A: I, I don't know. That's just how their receipts are. But I know I had ordered the eggplant and I thought it was gone be like an eggplant parmesan like you get at the Olive Garden but it didn't taste good so I ordered something else.

Q: Did you get reimbursed for these receipts?

A: Uh yes I did.

Q: At any point during the trip were you involved in a traffic stop?

A: Yes.

Q: Where was the traffic stop?

A: I don't know where the stop was but it was on the highway.

Q: Do you remember which highway?

A: I don't.

Q: What was your, what did y'all get stopped for?

A: Um the officer pulled over uh for speeding, pulled us over for speeding.

Q: Lt. Kelly was driving?

A: Yes.

Q: Did he get a citation?

A: He got a citation but I don't know whether it was, I never looked at the citation so I don't know if it was a courtesy or if it was a speeding citation.

Q: During the trip in, in the car, did this person go to dinner with you all?

A: Yes.

Q: At any point during that time was the murder investigation discussed?

A: No.

Q: Can you describe this person to me a little bit more than just being fair complexed female?

A: Uh she was uh fair complexed, um she was petite size female, as far as I know she was female. Uh she had light hair and um her facial features I really couldn't explain to you. Um I don't really remember I don't remember what she look like.

Q: Ok. About how old do you think she might have been? A rough range.

A: Uh she could have been in her 20's maybe, maybe 20's maybe early 30's, I don't know.

Q: Ok. Ok. Thank you. And you don't have any recollection of what her name might have been?

A: No I don't.

Q: Ok.

A: I didn't see her after that day. I never saw her after that day.

Q: Ok. Thank you.

Q: You say 'that day' what day are you referring to?

A: The day you know when we went on the trip and coming back.

Q: Ok you didn't see her, you hadn't seen her since y'all came back from the trip?

A: Right.

Q: So you had never seen her before the trip?

A: No I had never seen her before.

Q: Sgt. Green, is there anything else you would like to add to this statement?

A: Uh yes. Uh on the in, on my initial interview um I didn't really have a lot of information and um I um did tell you that if you needed anything you could contact me. And over this little period of time um I want to make sure I clarified anything um that wasn't clear to you all. Um I was able to uh you know in hopes that I could answer the questions better uh in my recollection um and um that's pretty much it.

Q: Is there anything else you would like to add that may aid us in this investigation?

A: Um I was being as truthful as I can be um from what I recall. I was told I need to come down and follow up, in which I did. I had no problem in doing that. Um so I guess if there's anything else that you all need to know.

Q: There's not anything else. End of statement at 11:23 hours.

Continuation of the interview of Sgt. Green:

Sh

Q: I'm going to show you a photo lineup of 6 individuals. See do you, do you identify any of these persons as one of the people that went on the trip to Alabama with you and Lt. Kelly?

A: She looks like the girl if I can recall.

Q: Could you put a?

A: Is it her or her? Man.

Q: Just circle the one that looks like, put your initial and fill out the rest of it.

A: This looks like her. This looks very much like her.

Q: And today. And today's date is May 29th, May 29th.

A: I'm responsible for?

Q: Just put your name beside the circle. Just put uh went on the trip, went on the trip on August 28, 2018 with Lt. Kelly and yourself.

A: Ok.

Q: After looking at a picture now, does it jog your memory as far as possible name or anything like that?

A: No, a name, I can't think of a name but it looks very much like that. She look very much like that girl. It was between her and her but I think it was her. But I, I haven't seen her since all of that occurred so I don't, I believe that's her.

Q: Ok. Thank you Sgt. Green, and that completes the interview. The time is 11:29.

A: So I do write on here? Should I write on here she looks very similar to the person..

Q: Yeah go head.

A: That rode with us?

Q: I think that's what it means when you identified number 2 as going on the trip.

A: Cause I know this supposed to be 100 percent.

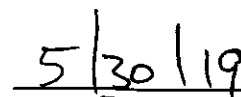

Q: Yeah. Go ahead.

A: Number 2 looks very similar to the female that went I do not remember name.

Q: Thank you Sgt. Green. 11:30 a.m.

I will ask you to read the preceding pages of this typewritten statement and if you find the same to be true and correct as a statement given by you, I ask you to initial the bottom of the preceding pages and sign your name on the line below.

AFFIDAVIT OF COMPLAINT

STATE OF TENNESSEE SHELBY COUNTY

Personally appeared Sgt. E. Kelly IBM#4672 and made oath that on or about the 31st day of July, 2017, in said County, and within the jurisdiction of the Criminal Court of Shelby County, Tennessee, one Bridgett Stafford age 27, sex Female/White SCSD R&I# 461928, whose last known address is 814 Barlow, Covington, TN 38109, did unlawfully commit the offense of Accessory After the Fact: to wit: 1st Degree Murder (T.C.A. 39-11-411) and the essential facts constituting said offense and the source of the affiant's information are as follows: On 07/31/2017, MPD Officer's responded to 2175 Business Center where the lifeless body of [redacted] was located near a dumpster and drainage pond. [redacted]'s body was nude and he appeared to have suffered severe injuries to his entire body with most of the damage to his head, face, torso, wrist, testicle and knee area. The victim also had appeared to have been restrained with several items binding his wrist, mouth, neck and face at some point.

The investigation revealed several witnesses and statements were provided to investigators that Nicholas Waugh and Eric Curry were with Mr. [redacted] inside of the victim's vehicle on 07/31/2017 at a home located at [redacted] e. They took by force beating him with their fist, feet, bricks and other items. The 2 males (Waugh and Curry) would ultimately put the victim in the truck of his car and check into a hotel room in the Sycamore View and Macon area. While at this location Bridgett Stafford arrived and was made aware of the kidnapping/ robbery and the suspect's attempts to use the victims credit cards. Stafford agreed to take the suspects to several locations to try and run up the charges on the victim's credit cards. On 08/01/2017 Bridgett Stafford was positively identified by a witness as the person that drove Eric Curry, Michael McGehee and another male to a cell phone store where the group of people used the victim's credit cards to purchase over $1,500.00 worth of cell phones and accessories.

The Shelby County medical Examiner's office would rule [redacted]'s death a homicide due to homicidal blunt force trauma. Eric Curry and Nicholas Waugh were charged with multiple counts of Murder, Kidnapping and Robbery. This Offense occurred in Memphis, Shelby County, Tennessee.

STATEMENT TAKEN AT 2714 Union Ex. 700
QUESTIONED BY Sgt. Austin 5-14-19
DATE/TIME

This is to advise you that the Inspectional Services Bureau of the Memphis Police Department is conducting an investigation into 32019-015.

This interview is being conducted pursuant to DR 139. In accordance with the DR, the department has a right to require you to answer questions specifically directed and pertinently related to the performance of your official duties. Refusal to answer these questions may result in disciplinary action up to and including dismissal from the Memphis Police Department.

Based upon the current state of criminal law and procedure, as outlined in Garrity vs. State of New Jersey, 385 U.S. 493, 87 S. Ct. 616 (1967), and subsequent decisions, statements made during the course of an interview, such as you are currently engaged in, are considered to be given under duress.  Memphis, Tennessee 38103

To: Major Ross

Subject: Out of state Suspect

From: Sgt. E. Kelly 4679

Date: Monday, August 27, 2018

On 08/21/2018 Sgt. Green was assigned homicide case# 180801147ME. Sgt. Green was able to determine a person of interest in the death of the victim as Antonio Gwynn. Mr. Gwynn had not been located in the Memphis area. On 08/25/2018 Sgt. Green was contacted by Det. Naquin of the Montgomery Police Dept. and advised that Antonio Gwynn had been in a local hospital and that he had confessed to 2 different people that he had killed his girlfriend in Memphis.

With this information Sgt. Green was able to get an arrest warrant issued and signed by a judge. Mr. Gwynn was arrested on the warrant and is being held by the Montgomery Police. Sgt. Kelly and Sgt. Green need travel to Montgomery, Alabama to secure statements from the 2 nurse witnesses who Mr. Gwynn confessed to, and to attempt to recover any possible evidence related to the investigation that will help in the prosecution of the murder. Investigators will also attempt to secure a statement from suspect Antonio Gwynn regarding the incident.

Memphis investigators will be leaving on 08/28/2018 and returning late 08/29/2018.

A 34-year-old man has been charged in the 2017 death of a man who was found tied up, naked and brutally beaten behind a Memphis office complex.

Eric Curry has been charged with first-degree murder in the death of 60-year-old who was found by police on July 31 near a dumpster and a drainage pond in the back of 2175 Business Center Drive, off Elmore Drive and Covington Way. He was pronounced dead on the scene.

Witnesses told police that Curry and another man were seen with the victim inside his vehicle parked outside of Curry's home in the 5300 block of [redacted] on the day he was killed, according to an arrest affidavit.

Police were told by witnesses that they saw the victim in his car with his hands and mouth taped while Curry and an unidentified man beat him with a taser gun, a gun and their hands.

The victim was then taken inside Curry's home where police said he was stripped of his clothes and beaten again as the suspects demanded he give them his PIN code for his ATM card and credit cards, according to the affidavit.

Police said the suspects took the victim back to his car where they put him in the trunk and then dumped his body behind the office complex.

The suspects withdrew $200 from an ATM and checked into a hotel where they continued to try to gain access to the victim's bank and credit card accounts, according to an affidavit.

Man charged in 2017 homicide who victim found beaten, nude behind Memphis office complex Page 2 of 2
Curry was booked in the Shelby County Jail. In addition to the murder charge, Curry was charged with especially aggravated kidnapping and especially aggravated robbery. He will be in court Friday on the charges.

It is not known if the other man police said was with Curry has been arrested in the incident.

Woman charged as accessory in brutal 2017 beating death

Yolanda Jones, USA TODAY NETWORK – Tennessee Published 8:07 a.m. CT April 27, 2018

A 27-year-old woman has been charged in connection with the 2017 beating death of a man who was found tied up and naked behind a Memphis office complex.

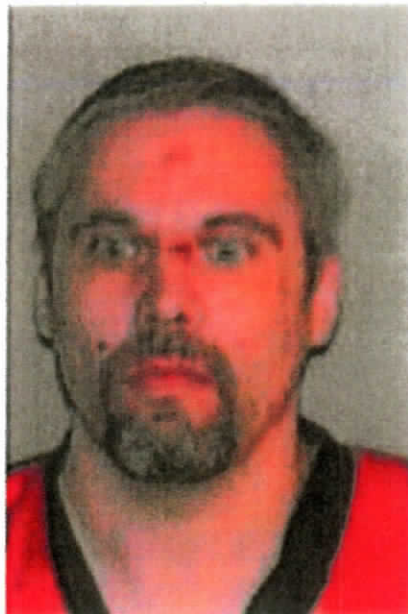

Bridgett Stafford of Covington, Tenn. has been charged with accessory after the fact to first-degree murder in the death of Eric Curry, 34, was found by police on July 31, 2017 near a dumpster and a drainage pond in the back of 2175 Business Center Drive, off Elmore Drive and Covington Way. He was pronounced dead on the scene.

Eric Curry, 34, and Nicholas Waugh, 31, were charged with first-degree murder in the death, according to arrest records.

The suspects then took the victim to a hotel on Sycamore View and Macon Road where the torture continued until they gained access to the victim's bank and credit card accounts, police said.

Stafford arrived at the hotel and was told about the robbery and kidnapping of the victim, according to an affidavit. She is accused of driving the suspects to a store where they bought more than $1,500 worth of cell phones and accessories using the victim's credit card.

Stafford was arrested April 26. Her bond has been set at $12,500.

Curry and Waugh remain in jail under no bond. Waugh will be in court on May 18.

Hello Sgt. Austin,

Both Lt. Kelly and Sgt. Green have access to eAgent. Lt. Kelly's user name is ekelly and Sgt. Green's user name is sgreen2. I was unable to locate where Lt. Kelly or Sgt. Green ran anything on Bridgett Stafford through eAgent during the time frame given. I also ran Lt. Kelly's TN DL # [redacted] and Sgt. Green's TN DL # [redacted] and was unable to locate a speeding ticket on either of their driving histories. I'm unsure if a speeding ticket issued in AL would show up on their TN DL or not.

I was unable to check Watson to see if Ms. Stafford was run through Watson during the time frame mentioned.

Both WASP and Odyssey are Shelby County systems that could have been utilized to check for a warrant. I don't have access to conduct a history search on those systems.

Please let me know if you need anything else.

Thank you,
Amy
